Sacramental Life of our Parish

Baptism for children (under the age of 7) is celebrated in English on the first three Sundays at 1 pm; in Spanish on the last Sunday of the month at 1 pm; in Kreyol on the 3rd Saturday at 1 pm. Parents attend a preparation session on the first Monday of the month from 8 to 9:30 pm in the church. Please call the Parish Center (334-0021) to make arrangements to speak to one of our priests or deacons about your child's upcoming baptism.

Celebration of Marriage

Please call the Parish Center (334-0021) at least six months in advance to make arrangements for an interview with one of our parish deacons or priests who will meet with the engaged couple, set the time and date of the wedding, and make arrangements for our parish marriage preparation program.

Rite of Christian Initiation

Adults who have never been baptized are prepared for the reception of the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation) through the RCIA process. Other adults may have already been baptized, but are seeking to receive Eucharist and/or Confirmation. Those interested in knowing more about the process of becoming a full member of the Catholic Church are invited to call Sister Ann Horn at 516-334-0021, ext. 353. Parents who have school-aged children who have never been baptized are also invited to speak to Sister Ann about their process of preparation for these sacraments.

Sacraments of School Age Children

Our parish faith formation program prepares children for the celebration of the sacraments of Eucharist, Reconciliation, and Confirmation. The norm is that children receive a two-year preparation for Reconciliation and Eucharist (normally celebrated in the second grade) and a two-year preparation program for Confirmation (normally celebrated in the eighth grade). Our religious education program deepens the experience of faith and religious formation in the years between the celebrations of these sacraments.

Parents who have children older than first grade and are seeking to have them receive the sacraments of Eucharist (First Communion), Reconciliation or Confirmation are asked to call the Religious Education office.

Communion to the Sick and Homebound

Anyone who is not able to attend Mass because of frailty, chronic or temporary illness, or admission to hospice can have Holy Communion brought to them at home on a regular basis. Please call the parish office to make arrangements for a lay minister to bring holy communion.

Care for those in need. . .

Parish Outreach Program

Our parish outreach program, located in the Father Schaefer Outreach Building, provides a range of social services for people of the local community. Ximena Aravena, Lupe Ramirez, Yanira Chacon and Barbara Powell are the coordinators of Parish Outreach which operates Monday to Friday between 10 am and 3 pm. 516-334-0021, ext. 361.

Casa Mary Johanna, also located in the Father Schaefer Outreach Building provides services and counseling. Yanira Chacon is the coordinator of Casa Mary Johanna and can be reached at 516-334-0021 ext 362

Our Parish Outreach Food Pantry is located in the Father Schaefer Outreach Building (75 Post Avenue). Hours of operation are: Monday (4:30 - 7pm), Tuesday (10:30am - 12 pm & 1 pm - 3 pm), Wednesday (10:30am - 12 pm & 1pm - 3pm), Thursday (10:30am - 12pm; 4:30 - 7 pm), Friday 10:30am to 12 noon. Food Donations are accepted: Monday 10am to 7pm, Tuesday 10am to 4pm, Wednesday 10am to 4pm, Thursday 10am to 7pm. Ximena Aravena (516-334-0021 (ext 327) is the coordinator of our food pantry.

Ministry to the Bereaved

We reach out to those who have suffered the death of a loved one. Joan McGovern coordinates our Bereavement Ministry throughout the year.

Parish Regional School

Saint Brigid/Our Lady of Hope Regional School offers an excellent education in the spirit of the Gospel for children from Nursery to 8th Grade. Students are prepared for the Sacraments of Penance, First Eucharist, and Confirmation. Liturgies and Prayer Services are celebrated throughout the school year. Programs are offered for a wide range of student needs and interests. To arrange a visit, please call the school office at 333-0580. Mr. Paul Clagnaz is the Principal. Father Tony Stanganelli and Father Thomas Arnao are co-pastors. Visit our Website at www.stbolh.org.

Breaking Open the Word

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of liturgy. Here's the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

February 6th - Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 5:1-11

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret.

He saw two boats there alongside the lake;

the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets.

Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore.

Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon,

"Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch."

Simon said in reply,

"Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets."

When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing.

They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them.

They came and filled both boats so that the boats were in danger of sinking.

When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said,

"Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man."

For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon.

Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid;

from now on you will be catching men."

When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

In today's Gospel, Jesus calls the disciples to come follow him. They remain fishermen, but it is no longer their primary mission. He tells them they will become fishermen of a different sort: fishers of men. We are all called to follow Jesus in our unique way. Jesus gave Simon, John and James a gift, the vision of what could be accomplished as a follower of Jesus. As a result, they each have a profound sense of the power and holiness of God. We should not be fearful of God and all his power, but recognize our unworthiness and in our awe and recognition, make our lives productive by following Jesus and His teachings.

Gospel Reflection Questions

- Think of a time when you felt a sense of awe or wonder.
- Think of how God is calling you this week to carry out your mission.

Some Questions for Families & Children

- Think of how you can experience the awe of God in nature, friendships, people, music, etc.
- Think of some things that you fear, or wonder about.

How fruitful is our virtual church-going?

Virtual reality is nothing new. Ask anybody who has entered into the world of Xbox or Playstation headgear and all, mobilizing destructive forces from the comfort of one's overstuffed sofa.

Virtual reality is convenient and you can engage or disengage on your own terms!

In the world of Covid, virtual reality has achieved a foothold into our lifestyle that I fear has all the potential of becoming permanent. In our little world of Saint Brigid's, we set up, what I thought, were temporary measures to weather the pandemic storm.

But even now, live-stream Masses, remote faith formation classes, evening meetings of various ministries and programs are, I am afraid, quickly becoming the norm. Why not - it's convenient after all!

Now God, who knows all things, certainly knew our preference for convenience. So, why would he bother becoming flesh? Can't he forgive us with the descent of some invisible grace from heaven above? Why would God have to show his love by dying on a cross?

Why did Jesus call us to gather and break bread? Why does God choose engagement over some mystical virtual reality?

Church is not Church without physical engagement no more than redemptions is redemption without incarnation. And all of us take responsibility for doing the "right thing" (wear masks, keep reasonable distance) to make everyone feel more comfortable in physically gathering together.

Recently, I was invited to a rather impromptu gathering of my classmates from grammar school at a local restaurant here in Westbury. Most of us had not seen each other in over fifty-five years! For the first three minutes we said all the usual things, "You look fantastic!" and "So, where are you living?" and "Is that so. . .four grandchildren!" Then, for the next hour or so, we reminisced about teachers and some of the more outstanding characters of the class. After a final flurry of "Has anyone seen?" and "Let's do this again," we split the check and went our separate ways.

I spent most of my growing up years with these people - and yet now I find I have little in common with any of them. I am sure that many of you have felt the same way, whether it was at a class reunion or having befriended someone on Facebook from your growing-up years. It takes a lot of work to maintain a relationship. Just sharing the same childhood memories does not mean that you know anything substantial about that person.

In today's gospel, Jesus returns to his home town of Nazareth. Most everyone remembered him - after all, it wasn't that long ago that he was the boy growing up on the streets of the village. Yet, few really knew him - few "got" him, as is evident from the gospel. We heard in last week's gospel that Jesus tried to share with his fellow townspeople that he was now "filled with the Holy Spirit," and anointed to do an incredible mission for the whole of Israel. But now, this week, they lay hands upon him with the intention of throwing him over the cliff. I can imagine Jesus' final thoughts as he escaped their clutches, "I guess we've grown apart."

I guess we've grown apart. Imagine if Jesus were to say that to you today. "We used to be friends - we used to talk to each other a lot. You used to tell me everything that was going on in your day." For some of us, our relationship with Jesus is about as intense as clicking "like" on some post that a long-time acquaintance from grammar school has posted on Facebook. Not much investment of self in that relationship!

Relationships take a lot of work to maintain. Those who are married certainly know that truth; communication breaks down with the exception of doing some "calendar management." The sharing of thoughts and feelings and worries and hopes and dreams has now whittled down to figuring out who's picking up the kids from soccer practice. Now, if it is hard work to maintain a real and vibrant relationship with someone in your own family, imagine how much more difficult it is to maintain a relationship with Jesus whom we neither see nor hear. But the bottom line is this: When I look at the relationship I have with Jesus, am I satisfied? Do I want more?

Challenges Bring New Opportunities

With yet another COVID-19 surge in our midst, we seem to be left to feel that we are falling behind, instead of moving forward. It is worth re-viewing not just the negatives of the past two years, but the positives. All of us have had to respond to the challenges presented to us. We can find great comfort in realizing some benefits that have emerged because of each of our resilience to face what we've had to face.

Here in Parish Outreach are a few that come to mind:

- Food Pantry Ordering System – Before the COVID shutdown, our food pantry guests were invited into the pantry to choose the items they wanted. We call this a pantry of choice. This is very important because it respects the dignity of the person. They are not just handed a bag of food. With COVID, we could no longer have our guests in the building. From this challenge emerged our food ordering system. Our guests now place their orders by phone or via the Internet. Guests get to choose what they want and need and we use our food donations in the best possible way.
- Gift Cards - In the last two holiday seasons we were forced to change our holiday collections for those in need. With less volunteers and the difficulties people had in shopping, we moved to collecting gift cards for supermarkets and other stores. This has given our guests the flexibility to choose what they need. Not everyone likes turkey! We are happy to say that this past holiday season, we collected over $20,000 in gift cards! Your generosity will allow us to continue helping people in this way at Easter and throughout the year. Thank you!!!!
- Community Connections – The challenges of the pandemic have given us the opportunity to connect with other community and government organizations. We were able to help people get vaccines and become educated about a variety of health challenges. These connections will allow us to provide additional services to those in need with the help of our new partners.

These are only a few of the things that we can point to that have emerged during these challenging times. We hope they inspire each person reading this to realize the positives that have emerged in their own situations. Indeed, we are people of hope. With God's help, new life always emerges.

WINTER BEREAVEMENT GROUP

We will be having a six-week support group for the newly bereaved, which will meet on Wednesdays starting on February 2, to March 9, 2022, from 7:00 pm - 8:15 pm. Meetings will take place in St. Anthony Hall at 85 Post Ave., Westbury.

The group is designed to assist the newly bereaved in coping with their grief and in learning to live in a world without the deceased. It is open to all who have recently lost a loved one.

There is a $25 registration fee which is collected the first session.

Joan McGovern, experienced grief counselor and parishioner will facilitate the group. If you have further questions about the group or to register she can be reached at 516-238-5633. You may also email:

Los Desafíos Traen Nuevas Oportunidades

Con otro aumento de COVID-19 entre nosotros, parece que nos quedamos con la sensación de que nos estamos quedando atrás, en lugar de avanzar. Vale la pena revisar no solo los aspectos negativos de los últimos dos años, sino también los positivos. Todos hemos tenido que responder a los retos que se nos han presentado. Podemos encontrar un gran consuelo al darse cuenta de algunos beneficios que han surgido debido a cada uno de nuestra resiliencia para enfrentar lo que hemos tenido que afrontar.

Aquí en la Oficina de Ayuda hay algunos que se me vienen a la mente:

- Sistema de pedidos de despensa de alimentos: antes del cierre de COVID, nuestros invitados de la despensa de alimentos estaban invitados a la despensa para elegir los artículos que querían. A esto lo llamamos una despensa de elección. Esto es muy importante porque respeta la dignidad de la persona. No solo se les entrega una bolsa de comida. Con COVID, ya no pudimos tener a nuestros invitados en el edificio. De este desafío surgió nuestro sistema de pedidos de comida. Nuestros clientes ahora hacen sus pedidos por teléfono o a través del Internet. Los invitados pueden elegir lo que quieren y necesitan y usamos nuestras donaciones de alimentos de la mejor manera posible.
- Tarjetas de regalo: en las últimas dos temporadas navideñas, nos vimos obligados a cambiar nuestras colecciones navideñas para los necesitados. Con menos voluntarios y las dificultades que tenía la gente para ir de compras, cambiamos recogiendo tarjetas de regalo para supermercados y otras tiendas. Esto ha dado a nuestros huéspedes la flexibilidad para elegir lo que necesitan. ¡No a todos les gusta el pavo! Estamos felices de decir que en esta pasada temporada festiva, ¡recaudamos más de $20,000 en tarjetas de regalo! Su generosidad nos permitirá seguir ayudando a la gente de esta manera en Semana Santa y durante todo el año. ¡!!! Gracias!!!!
- Conexiones comunitarias: los desafíos de la pandemia nos han dado la oportunidad de conectarnos con otras organizaciones comunitarias y gubernamentales. Pudimos ayudar a las personas a obtener vacunas y aprender sobre una variedad de desafíos de salud. Estas conexiones nos permitieron brindar servicios adicionales a quienes los necesitan con la ayuda de otras agrupaciones.

Estas son solo algunas de las cosas que podemos señalar que han surgido durante estos tiempos desafiantes. Esperamos que inspiren a cada persona que lea esto a darse cuenta de los aspectos positivos que han surgido en su propias situaciones. De hecho, somos personas de esperanza. Con la ayuda de Dios siempre surge nueva vida.

Diácono Darrell y todos en la Oficina de Ayuda Grupo de duelo en invierno

GRUPO DE DUELO EN INVIERNO

Tendremos un grupo de apoyo de seis semanas para los recién deudos, que se reunirán los miércoles a partir del 2 febrero hasta el 9 de marzo, 2022, de 7:00 a 8:15 horas. Las reuniones se llevarán a cabo en St. Anthony' Hall en el 85 Post Ave., Westbury.

El grupo está diseñado para ayudar a los recién afligidos a hacer frente a su dolor y en aprender a vivir en un mundo sin los difuntos. esta abierto a todos los que recientemente han perdido a un ser querido.

Hay una tarifa de registro de $ 25 que se cobra en la primera sesión.

Joan McGovern, consejera de duelo con experiencia y feligrés, facilitará el grupo. Si tiene más preguntas sobre el grupo o para registrarse, ella puede ser contactada al 516-238-5633. También puede enviar un correo electrónico bereavement@saintbrigid.net

Opportunities for Spiritual Growth

In our recent parish survey, you told us that you wanted more opportunities for spiritual growth, to deepen your personal relationships with Jesus and to experience community where we can both receive and share God's mercy in and through our diversity.

In support of this, I have initiated a Spirituality Committee and members will be introduced at Mass over the next couple of weeks to share what we are planning, gather your input and answer any questions you may have.

I am excited for all that the Holy Spirit will be inviting us to explore together as a parish community, including the new and returning/ongoing offerings highlighted below.

-- Father Tony

Coming Soon...

Daily Eucharistic Adoration: Quiet reflection with the Blessed Sacrament daily after the 12:10 Mass until 5pm.

Lenten Tenebrae Service: Latin for "darkness," Tenebrae is an evening prayer experience highlighted by the gradual extinguishing of candles with readings, reflections and music.

Meditation on the Seven Last Words of Jesus: Taking place on Good Friday, the passion of Jesus expressed in His words from the cross as presented in the personal reflection of several parishioners.

Taize Prayer Experience: This service includes sung and chanted prayers, meditation, readings and silence.

Bethany Women's Retreat: The return of our ongoing opportunity for women to step away from their day and experience the rejuvenating love of God through presentation, prayer and silence.

Young Adult Retreat: a new peer-led experience for our young parishioners to grow in faith and friendship with Jesus and each other.

Come & See Parish Retreat: An invitation to know Jesus more fully and figure out what knowing Him means in your personal every day life. This will be offered as a full day AND as a weekly evening opportunity.

Stations of the Resurrection Parish Mission: A contemporary walk with Jesus through His resurrection appearances and how he reveals himself to us in our midst today.

Monthly Inisfada Men's Prayer Group: Inisfada is Gaelic for Long Island. This group was established in the former St. Ignatius Retreat House over a decade ago and meets on the last Saturday of every month (Sept-June) from 8:30am-10am in St. Anthony's Hall.

Morning Retreat: Continuation of our monthly gathering to discover the different ways that God is present in our lives through a combination of participant engagement, self-reflection and sharing.

Book/Article Discussions, Spiritual Direction, Blogs, Video Offerings on the Parish Website and Spiritual Readings and Brochures are also things we have in place or planned.

Thank You

for everything you did to help support Saint Brigid's this past year and always!

Our most generous parishioners have done so much to help keep St. Brigid's alive, especially this past year (or two)! For this impressive reality, Fr. Tony & the parish staff are so grateful! Here are just some examples of ways you've helped...

- YOU increased your giving in the collections (and have brought us to a weekly average amount we haven't seen since 2016!) THANKS!
- YOU signed up for Automated Giving using Vanco/GivePlus+ so that the parish can count on your regular, non-stop weekly donations. THANKS!
- YOU donated to several parish covid-relief funds that were created to help us for the many months when our collections were over $3,000 less a week. THANKS!
- YOU made our Parish Outreach Services even stronger by donating funds to help us assist so many people in need, especially since the pandemic began! THANKS!
- YOU help us to pay our escalating insurance bills, like for instance, the $100,000 increase (from $130,000 to $230,000) this year alone! THANKS!
- YOU contributed to our technology fund, which coupled with the Millennium Fund helped us purchase over $20,000 worth of technological equipment so that we could live-stream from four locations and regularly sanitize. THANKS!
- YOU who ordered Mass Cards and other Memorials online or signed-up for auto giving, and offered to pay for the fees connected with your online transactions, as well as any extra money donated to the parish general fund. THANKS!
- YOU who gave $1.00 a week, who now give $2.00 a week in the collection. Or anyone who donated to any parish fund-raising activity! THANKS!

YOU - WHOM WE SO MUCH CHERISH AS YOU HELP US FULFILL OUR MISSION!

Retrouvaille Weekend You Can Help Heal Your Marriage

Do you feel alone? Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Do you argue or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse?

The Retrouvaille Program is for married couples facing difficult challenges in their relationships.

Primarily a practical program to improve communication, build stronger marriages and help couples reconnect.

Presenters are not trained marriages counselors, but rather couples sharing their personal stories of marital struggles and the tools they used to rediscover their love.

For confidential information about the Retrouvaille program, or to register for the upcoming weekend that begins on Friday, May 13th, please visit our website www.helpourmarriage.org or call 1-800-470-2230 and you will be connected directly and confidentially to a couple from Long Island/Metro Retrouvaille who can help.

Haitian-American Apostolate

Haitian Commentary, Fourth Sunday Ordinary Time

Frères, Soeurs et amis (es), les textes de la liturgie de ce quatrième dimanche insistent pour souligner la vocation de chacun dans le plan de Dieu. Il appelle Jérémie de manière très simple. Il le choisit pour être son "porte-parole". Il est envoyé par Dieu pour proclamer un message dur. Dieu l'encourage à parler ouvertement. Confronté à ses adversaires, Dieu ne lui a jamais abandonné. Il lui a donné garantie qu'il sera toujours avec lui pour le délivrer".

Dans la deuxième lecture, Paul en s'adressant aux Corinthiens, il leur parle de l'amour authentique, celui qui vient du coeur de Dieu, et qui passe par le Christ et rejoint le nôtre. Il montre que l'amour est patient, qu'il est bon, qu'il n'est pas envieux et orgueilleux, ni intéressé. Il ne tient pas compte du mal reçu mais se complait dans la vérité. Il couvre tout, il croit tout, il espère tout, il supporte tout. Tout ce que nous faisons, nous devons le faire avec amour. L'amour n'a pas de fin.

Pour Paul trois choses demeurent: la foi en Dieu et en son Christ; l'espérance dans la grâce de Dieu et l'amour.

Selon lui, sans la charité, même les charismes les plus grands n'ont aucune valeur. Il continue à leur dire que ce qui compte ce n'est pas le caractère sensationnel des charismes mais l'amour généreux. L'évangile met en garde contre l'amour possessif qui est contraire à générosité. Il nous invite à ouvrir nos coeurs et apprendre à ne pas être envieux et jaloux. Nous devons avoir une attitude qui corresponde au dessein divin. Oui, Dieu est un amour généreux, un amour qui donne sans calcul, sans se lasser et qui veut que nous l'imitons.

Son salut ne se réserve pas à quelques privilégiés mais à tous les peuples, y compris l'étranger et le pauvre. Aujourd'hui, Jésus nous fait entrevoir qu'au-delà des menaces et de la mort, s'ouvre un chemin de vie. Il traverse la barrière des ennemis comme il traversera la barrière de la mort.

Demandons au seigneur de repousser loin de nous tous nos ennemis et que sans cesse nous chanterons ta louange.
