THE PASTOR'S POST

In the Clouds

Dear Parish Family:

There's a beautiful image at the beginning of the second reading. The writer says, "We are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses..." (Hebrews 12:1). This takes place after the writer has told the story of salvation history. The Letter to the Hebrews is a nice letter to read when you have some time.

I was thinking of that image of the "cloud of witnesses" in light of a few things happening in these days.

First, I cannot help but think of the great cloud of witnesses who have made and make up this parish. It was a pretty overwhelming thought to come here in the path of some greatest pastors in our diocese. I think of Msgr. Code, Fr. Fred, Fr. Frank, Fr. Ralph, and Fr. Tony. Each bringing their own gifts and talents and in doing so bringing St. Brigid's to a new level. I think of the leaders who have served and serve here - clergy, religious, and laity - who have helped to do the same. I think of the legacy of this community of faith who has adapted, transformed, addressed the needs of various times and peoples. In whatever way possible and necessary this parish has sought to "love one another". This parish is, indeed, surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses! They indeed help us to persevere in running the race before us in this present moment.

Now there's a danger here too, I suppose. We can keep our head "in the clouds" and see the witnesses as everyone else but us. Isn't it great that that person is so dedicated or she is so generous or they're so involved and so on! We say, "that can't be me". In those cases we risk allowing other people to be the witnesses while not taking our rightful place as a witness too.

St. Brigid's is a community of witnesses and it always has been. I wonder if now more than ever we need more and more people - men and women, adults and young people, those who are actively engaged and those on the margins, those who are able to support others and those in need.

If you're someone who has not gotten to be involved at St. Brigid's, can I ask you to think about it? As we come through the pandemic there are more and more ways to witness here at St. Brigid's. Look through the bulletin and check St. Brigid's social media for more ways to witness.

This image of the clouds links to another feast we celebrate this week - the Solemnity of the Assumption, a holy day of obligation. Images of the assumption often show Mary surrounded by clouds. We celebrate this day remembering that Mary was taken body and soul into heaven at the end of her earthly life. Come and pray with us at Mass on Monday and consider being a part of our beautiful procession after the 5 p.m. Mass.

Please, if you can, say a prayer for me.

THE PASTOR'S POST

In the Clouds

Estimada Familia Parroquial:

Hay una hermosa imagen al comienzo de la segunda lectura. El escritor dice: "Estamos rodeados de una nube tan grande de testigos..." (Hebreos 12:1). Esto tiene lugar después de que el escritor ha contado la historia de la historia de la salvación. La Carta a los Hebreos es una buena carta para leer cuando tienes algo de tiempo.

Estaba pensando en esa imagen de la "nube de testigos" a la luz de algunas cosas que suceden en estos días.

Primero, no puedo dejar de pensar en la gran nube de testigos que han formado y forman esta parroquia. Fue un pensamiento bastante abrumador venir aquí en el camino de uno de los mejores pastores de nuestra diócesis. Pienso en Mons. Code, p. Fred, p. franco, p. Ralph, y el P. Tony. Cada uno aportando sus propios dones y talentos y, al hacerlo, llevar a St. Brigid's a un nuevo nivel. Pienso en los líderes que han servido y sirven aquí, clérigos, religiosos y laicos, que han ayudado a hacer lo mismo. Pienso en el legado de esta comunidad de fe que se ha adaptado, transformado, atendido las necesidades de los diversos tiempos y de todas las formas posibles y necesarias buscan "amarse unos a otros". ¡Esta parroquia está, de hecho, rodeada por una gran nube de testigos! De hecho, nos ayudan a perseverar en la carrera que tenemos por delante en este momento presente.

Ahora también hay un peligro aquí, supongo. Podemos mantener nuestra cabeza "en las nubes" y ver a los testigos como todos menos nosotros.

¿No es genial que esa persona sea tan dedicada o tan generosa o que estén tan involucrados y así sucesivamente? Decimos, "ese no puedo ser yo". En esos casos, corremos el riesgo de permitir que otras personas sean los testigos sin ocupar el lugar que nos corresponde como testigos también.

St. Brigid's es una comunidad de testigos y siempre lo ha sido. Me pregunto si ahora más que nunca necesitamos más y más personas: hombres y mujeres, adultos y jóvenes, los que participan activamente y los que están en los márgenes, los que pueden ayudar a otros y los necesitados.

Si eres alguien que no se ha involucrado demasiado en St. Brigid's, ¿puedo pedirte que lo pienses? A medida que superamos la pandemia, hay más y más formas de testificar aquí en St. Brigid's. Lea el boletín y consulte las redes sociales de St. Brigid para conocer más formas de testificar.

Esta imagen de las nubes se vincula con otra fiesta que celebramos esta semana: la Solemnidad de la Asunción, un día sagrado de precepto. Las imágenes de la asunción a menudo muestran a María rodeada de nubes. Celebramos este día recordando que María fue llevada en cuerpo y alma al cielo al final de su vida terrena. Ven y ora con nosotros en la misa del lunes y considera ser parte de nuestra hermosa procesión después de las 5 p.m. Misa.

Por favor, si puedes, di una oración por mí.

KOMINOTE AYISYÉN

Haitian Community , Commentary Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary time, C, 2022

Frères, soeurs et amis(es), à travers la liturgie de ce jour, le Seigneur nous appelle à suivre son Fils et à choisir la vie. Jésus nous rappelle que tout homme est acteur de sa vie mais aussi pierre vivante de l'humanité toute entière.

La première lecture nous donne un exemple saisissant des persécutions subies par le prophète Jérémie, lui qui a voulu rester fidèle à la Parole de Dieu. Dans sa mission de prophète, il exhortait le roi de faire confiance au Seigneur au lieu de rechercher la protection de l'Égypte.

Mais le roi, s'est laissé influencé par son entourage. Il a refusé de suivre ses conseils. Il l'a livré à ceux qui en veulent à sa vie. Il s'est descendu dans une citerne avec le grand risque d'être englouti par la boue. Il doit son salut à un étranger qui le sort de la fosse et de la boue.

Le texte de la deuxième lecture nous encourage à choisir la vie à la suite du Christ en ayant les yeux fixés sur Lui. Il a enduré l'épreuve de la croix et il siège désormais à la droite de Dieu. C'est lui en effet qui est à l'origine de notre foi, donc son fondement, et qui est aussi à son terme, donc sa fin.

Dans l'Évangile, Jésus parle de "Jeter" le feu et de mettre la division plutôt que la paix.

Le feu qu'il veut mettre, c'est le feu de Dieu. Le feu de l'Esprit de Dieu qui va animer la vie de ses disciples. Le feu de la Bonne Nouvelle qui va bouleverser, renverser, détruire le vieux monde pour faire surgir ce qu'il appelle le Royaume de Dieu. Il le sait bien que la foi en lui va occasionner des divisions et des conflits graves, au sein des familles et au sein des nations. Pour autant, il n'y a pas à se décourager. Nous sommes invités à développer en nous la vertu d'endurance, à nous donner largement la main, avec les yeux fixés sur Lui.

Demandons au Seigneur, la grâce d'accueillir ce feu pour le répandre autour de nous. Tout en se rappelant que c'est contre le péché que nous sommes en lutte, non pas contre nos frères.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

Reflecting on next Sunday's Gospel before you come to Mass can bring so much more meaning to your experience of liturgy. Here is the Gospel for next Sunday. How does this Gospel touch your life?

August 21st - Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 13:22-30

Jesus passed through towns and villages,
teaching as he went and making his way to Jerusalem.

Someone asked him,

"Lord, will only a few people be saved?"

He answered them,

"Strive to enter through the narrow gate,
for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter
but will not be strong enough.

After the master of the house has arisen and locked the door,
then will you stand outside knocking and saying,

'Lord, open the door for us.'

He will say to you in reply,

'I do not know where you are from.'

And you will say,

'We ate and drank in your company and you taught in our streets.'

Then he will say to you,

'I do not know where you are from.

Depart from me, all you evildoers!'

And there will be wailing and grinding of teeth
when you see Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God and you yourselves cast out.

And people will come from the east and the west
and from the north and the south and will recline at table in the kingdom of God.

For behold, some are last who will be first,
and some are first who will be last."

REFLECTING ON THE GOSPEL

Think of what the narrow gate is that we must go through to enter into the kingdom..

Think of what more we can do beside receiving His Body and Blood..

Think of what it means that "some are last who will be first".

Think of someone you know who might not be called to be with Jesus someday..

Think of what would keep you from going through a narrow door..
