Prayer for Labor Day

As the sun rises to bring in the new day:
We remember those who descend into the earth, their work begins in darkness, pulling from the earth, the resources we steward.

We remember those who work inside a building away from the light and brightness of the day.

We remember those who work outside in the harsh elements of our world, the bitter cold and sweltering heat of extremes.

We remember those who do not have a job to go to, who are struggling to meet the needs of their daily living expenses, for whom the day becomes long and arduous.
As the sun sets to bring in the evening of rest:

We remember those who work in the night.

We remember those who are trying to recover from their labor and toils of the day.

We remember those who participate in unsafe and dangerous work.

We pray for a renewed sense of dignity in their lives and in their work.

A medida que sale el sol para traer el nuevo día:

Recordamos a aquellos que descienden a la tierra, su trabajo comienza en la oscuridad, sacando de la tierra los recursos que administramos.

Recordamos a aquellos que trabajan dentro de un edificio lejos de la luz y el brillo del día.

Recordamos a aquellos que trabajan afuera en los duros elementos de nuestro mundo, el frío amargo y el calor sofocante de los extremos.

Recordamos a aquellos que no tienen un trabajo al que acudir, que luchan por cubrir las necesidades de sus gastos cotidianos, para quienes el día se vuelve largo y arduo.

A medida que el sol se pone para traer el descanso de la noche:

Recordamos a los que trabajan de noche.
Recordamos a aquellos que están tratando de recuperarse de su trabajo y fatigas del día.

Recordamos a quienes participan en trabajos inseguros y peligrosos.
Oramos por un sentido renovado de dignidad en sus vidas y en su trabajo.

THE PASTOR'S POST

Parrotheads

Dear Parish Family:

I was going to wait a few years before I admitted to this to you, but I feel I can trust you with this even though it's only been a little over two months since I arrived.

I am a "parrothead". OK. I feel better. It's out in the open. For those who don't know, a parrothead is one who is a huge fan of Jimmy Buffett. I can't support all of Jimmy Buffett's songs or lyrics, but I have been privileged to be at a number of concerts in a number of places. They're quite the experience and, no, I'm not in the picture to the right!

One of things about going to a Jimmy Buffett concert is you have to be ready to move and to sing! And sing everyone does! A whole stadium can sing so many of Jimmy's Buffett's songs, sometimes even getting ahead of him!

I share this image to make you smile on this Labor Day Weekend but also to let you know about something that may be a little different to you at Mass. I have asked the music ministry here at St. Brigid's to come together with some common hymns that we will sing at all of our English language Masses during the Communion Procession. The hymns will be sung at all the Masses from the Choir Mass to the 5 p.m. to the Family Mass to "The Six". Each of the hymns has a refrain that is simple and that we call sing.

Here are some of the reasons we're going to do this:

1. We should sing when we process to receive Communion. The reception of Holy Communion is a communal act, and act of the Body. Therefore, as we process to the altar, we should be common in our song. This singing should continue until everyone has received communion. So when you return to your seat, it's not a quiet time. This is a time for us to sing together. Following the hymn, there should be a time of silence.

2. During this part of the Mass, we will sing about what we are doing and receiving. So when we sing the hymn and the refrain, we testify, if you will, about what we are doing - receiving the risen and glorified Christ.

3. The hymn, as we have been doing, will begin once the priest receives Communion. The cantor and organists or other instrumentalists will receive at the end of the communion procession.

4. I hope this will help to bring us together even more as a parish as we will have some common hymns that we all know, regardless of which liturgy we regularly attend.

It is important for each one of us to enter fully into the celebration of the Mass and to pray as the Church calls us to in the liturgy. Doing so will help us to get to an even better place than "Margaritaville".

It will lead us to eternal life.

Please say a prayer for me.

While the Priest is receiving the Sacrament, the Communion Chant is begun, its purpose being to express the spiritual union of the communicants by means of the unity of their voices, to show gladness of heart, and to bring out more clearly the "communitarian" character of the procession to receive the Eucharist. The singing is prolonged for as long as the Sacrament is being administered to the faithful.

- General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 86

THE PASTOR'S POST

Parrotheads

Estimada Familia Parroquial:

Iba a esperar algunos años antes de admitirte esto, pero siento que puedo confiarte esto a pesar de que solo han pasado un poco más de dos meses desde que llegué. Soy un "cabeza de loro". ESTÁ BIEN. Me siento mejor. Está al aire libre. Para aquellos que no conocen, un cabeza de loro es uno que es un gran admirador de Jimmy Buffett. No puedo apoyar todas las canciones o letras de Jimmy Buffett, pero he tenido el privilegio de estar en varios conciertos en varios lugares. Son toda una experiencia y, no, ¡no estoy en la imagen de la derecha! ¡Una de las cosas de ir a un concierto de Jimmy Buffett es que tienes que estar listo para moverte y cantar! ¡Y canta todo el mundo! Todo un estadio puede cantar muchas de las canciones de Jimmy's Buffett, ¡a veces incluso adelantándose a él! Comparto esta imagen para hacerte sonreír en este fin de semana del Día del Trabajo, pero también para informarte sobre algo que puede ser un poco diferente para ti en la misa.

En la celebración de las Misas en la comunidad española, somos bendecidos. Tenemos hermosos grupos de música que comparten sus dones de maneras hermosas. La oración vespertina de verano de este lunes fue un maravilloso ejemplo. Algunos de mis amigos han venido a orar aquí en las misas en español (¡no para reírse de mi español!) y siempre me hablan de la hermosa música y de cómo acerca sus corazones más y más a Jesús.

En las Misas en inglés vamos a hacer algunos cambios en los himnos de comunión que usamos y quería compartir con ustedes algunas de las formas en que se pueden relacionar con cada uno de nosotros, independientemente de la Misa a la que asistamos. Pensé que sería bueno considerar algunos de estos puntos en todas nuestras Misas.

Primero, debemos cantar cuando procesemos para recibir la Comunión. La recepción de la Sagrada Comunión es un acto comunitario y un acto del Cuerpo. Por lo tanto, mientras nos dirigimos al altar, debemos ser comunes en nuestro canto. Este canto debe continuar hasta que todos hayan recibido la comunión. Entonces, cuando regresa a su asiento, no es un momento tranquilo. Este es un momento para que cantemos juntos. Después del himno, debe haber un tiempo de silencio.

Segundo, durante esta parte de la Misa, cantaremos sobre lo que estamos haciendo y recibiendo. Entonces, cuando cantamos el himno y el estribillo, testificamos, por así decirlo, sobre lo que estamos haciendo: recibir a Cristo resucitado y glorificado.

Tercero, el himno debe comenzar una vez que el sacerdote recibe la Comunión. El cantor y los organistas u otros instrumentistas recibirán al final de la procesión la comunión. Esto nos recuerda que es una comunión, no la comunión del sacerdote y luego la de todos los demás.

Es importante que cada uno de nosotros entre de lleno en la celebración de la Misa y ore como la Iglesia nos llama en la liturgia. Si lo hace, nos ayudará a llegar a un lugar aún mejor que "Margaritaville".

Nos conducirá a la vida eterna.

Por favor, di una oración por mí.

Who doesn't love a baptism?

Baptism @ St. Brigid's

St. Brigid's is seeking some help and support with our baptism intake process (sounds exciting, right?), working behind the scenes and/or assisting at the celebrations of the Sacrament of Baptism. We are looking for individuals and/or families to serve as:

- Welcome Team. As part of this group, you will be part of a team of volunteers who will meet with families in St. Anthony's Hall (based on your schedule) and help them with some initial paperwork. Training provided!
- Bib Makers. This is a great way for someone who cannot always get to St. Brigid's to help out! Are you great with a sewing machine? Can follow a simple pattern? Great! Help us to make baptismal garments that will be given to each baby baptized at St. Brigid's.
- Greeters. Can you help one or two Sundays a month and assist the priest or deacon at the actual baptismal liturgy? A schedule will be made.

It is hard not to smile when you help a new baby come to the celebration of Baptism! Don't miss out! To assist with English speaking baptisms, email fatherjohn@saintbrigid.net. To assist with Spanish speaking baptisms email fatherandres@saintbrigid.net. To assist with both the English and Spanish speaking baptisms, choose either Fr. John or Fr. Andres :)! You can always call the Parish Office at 516.334.0021.

St. Brigid's está buscando ayuda y apoyo con nuestro proceso de admisión al bautismo (suena emocionante, ¿verdad?), trabajando entre bastidores y/o asistiendo en las celebraciones del Sacramento del Bautismo. Estamos buscando individuos y/o familias para servir como:

Equipo de bienvenida. Como parte de este grupo, usted formará parte de un equipo de voluntarios que se reunirán con las familias en St. Anthony's Hall (según su horario) y los ayudarán con el papeleo inicial. ¡Entrenamiento incluido!

Fabricantes de baberos. ¡Esta es una gran manera para ayudar a alguien que no siempre puede ir a St. Brigid's! ¿Eres genial con una máquina de coser? ¿Puede seguir un patrón simple? ¡Excelente! Ayúdanos a hacer prendas bautismales que se entregarán a cada bebé bautizado en St. Brigid's.

Anfitriones. ¿Puedes ayudar uno o dos domingos al mes y asistir al sacerdote o diácono en la liturgia bautismal propiamente dicha? Se hará un cronograma.

¡Es difícil no sonreír cuando ayudas a un nuevo bebé a venir a la celebración del Bautismo! ¡No te lo pierdas!

Para ayudar con los bautismos de habla inglesa, envíe un correo electrónico a fatherjohn@saintbrigid.net. Para ayudar con los bautismos de habla hispana, envíe un correo electrónico a fatherandres@saintbrigid.net. Para ayudar con los bautismos de habla inglesa y española, elija a Fr. Juan o el P. Andrés :)! Siempre puede llamar a la Oficina Parroquial al 516.334.0021.

KOMINOTE AYISYÉN

Haitian Community, Twenty second Ordinary Time C, 2022

A travers la liturgie de ce vingt-Troisième semaine ordinaire, Jésus nous demande de le préférer à toute autre personne et de renoncer à tous nos biens si nous voulons être ses disciples. Selon lui, il n'est question de nous engager à la légère ou de faire les choses à moitié. A ceux qui veulent le suivre, ils doivent faire un bon discernement. Cela les aidera à faire point sur leur parcours à sa suite. Il nous est demandé de renoncer à tout pour être à Dieu seul. En accordant la priorité au Christ, toutes nos relations humaines en ressortent transfigurés. A la manière dont Paul invite Philémon à regarder son esclave comme un frère, nous partageons avec nos parents, notre conjoint, nos enfants, la dignité de Fils de Dieu qui nous les fait aimer à un autre niveau. St Paul nous redit que c'est tous les hommes que nous sommes invités à regarder comme des frères. Le livre de la Sagesse, dans la première lecture, nous donne des conseils pour une vie de croyant fidèle, sans orgueil, conscient de ses limites et de ses fautes, et qui reconnaît ce qu'il doit à son Dieu. Ces conseils s'adressent à nous aujourd'hui.

Demandons au Seigneur de nous envoyer son Esprit, qu'il nous rend capable, comme saint Paul, comme Philémon, de mettre en pratique ses paroles et de nous libérer de nos esclavages. De nous donner le courage de la mission pour que nous partions maintenant servir nos frères et leur annoncer la bonne nouvelle de leur salut...
