EL POST DEL PARROCO

Rotos: PAN, CORAZONES Y BRAZOS

Querida familia parroquial

Mientras repasaba el boletín y echaba un vistazo a la semana que tenemos por delante, me puse en contacto con la empresa que instalará la nueva estatua del Sagrado Corazón. El propietario me respondió que tenía malas noticias. El brazo de la estatua se rompió durante la entrega y hubo que reconstruirla. Es posible que no llegue a tiempo para la fiesta del Sagrado Corazón.

Me asusté un poco y puede que tuviera una pequeña rabieta con la compañía de la estatua. Pero luego pensé... roto. Ya está. Permítanme explicar.

Estamos celebrando dos solemnidades importantes en la vida de la Iglesia: la Solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo y la Solemnidad del Sagrado Corazón. Ambas fiestas implican un cierto sentido de ruptura.

Hoy celebramos la solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo. Jesús tomó el pan, lo bendijo, lo partió y se los dio. Lo partió. Este pan que procede del trigo y de los granos triturados es transformado en algo que no sólo alimenta, sino que salva. ¿Qué exige de nosotros? Que llevemos todo nuestro ser a la celebración de la Eucaristía, incluyendo nuestros quebrantos, para que también éstos sean transformados.

Pronto emprendremos con fuerza la renovación Eucarística en todas las parroquias de la Diócesis de Rockville Centre. Estará enfocado en la presencia real de Jesús en la Eucaristía. Así debería ser. Estudios recientes sobre nuestra comprensión de la Eucaristía son alarmantes. No venimos para una comida agradable o una reunión social. No nos alimentamos con recuerdos de Jesús. Nos alimentamos, nos nutrimos y adoramos la Presencia Real de Jesús. Pero esto nunca jamás puede separarse de lo que la Eucaristía realmente es. Si sólo venimos a adorar, pero no buscamos convertirnos en el Cuerpo de Cristo, corremos el riesgo de convertirnos sólo en adorar ídolos. No venimos a encontrarnos con una cosa (la hostia sagrada, la sangre preciosa), sino con una persona. Como en cualquier relación real, debemos estar abiertos a esa relación que puede transformarnos. En cierto sentido, se requiere ruptura.

Este viernes celebraremos la Solemnidad del Sacratísimo Corazón de Jesús. Nos encontramos en los días 4 y 5 de la Novena al Sagrado Corazón. (En el momento de escribir estas líneas todavía hay algunos libros disponibles en las puertas de la Iglesia, así como estampas de la novena).

La imagen del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús nos toca de muchas maneras diferentes y diferentes partes de la imagen pueden llegarnos de manera diferente. Yo siempre he encontrado consuelo en esta imagen. En mi última parroquia, encendía una vela junto al santuario del Sagrado Corazón y rezaba todos los días una oración al Sagrado Corazón. Ni siquiera sé muy bien por qué. Supongo que ver el corazón roto y herido de Jesús derramándose. Él conoce mi quebrantamiento y mis heridas. Conoce mi necesidad y mi desesperación. Sólo necesito tomar más tiempo para conocer y sentir este corazón amoroso que quiere reparar el mío. De nuevo, se requiere quebrantamiento.

EL POST DEL PARROCO

Broken: BREAD, HEARTS, AND ARMS

Así que no estoy seguro de que vayamos a tener una nueva estatua este jueves por la noche. Estoy un poco triste por ello. Tenía la esperanza de que sería otra hermosa manera de honrar las grandes contribuciones de Sister Ann y Socorro Moreno y una hermosa manera de terminar la Novena al Sagrado Corazón. Planes rotos. ¡Tal vez estaremos más preparados! No sólo una estatua mejor, sino incluso más tiempo para reflexionar sobre el amor de Jesús derramado por ti y por mí en el don de la Eucaristía y del Sagrado Corazón. A veces, la ausencia hace que el corazón se vuelva más cariñoso.

Quizá estos días sean buenos para que tú y yo reconozcamos nuestro quebranto y, en lugar de intentar arreglarlo todo nosotros mismos, creamos más en el poder de la Eucaristía y en la pasión del corazón herido de Jesús. Digamos juntos: "¡Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, confío en ti!". Basta con reconocer nuestro quebranto para decirlo de corazón.

Si puedes, rezar una oración por mí. Te prometo lo mismo.

Dear Parish Family

So..as I was going through the bulletin and taking a look at the week ahead, I reached out to the statute company that will be installing the new statue of the Sacred Heart. The owner replied that he had some bad news. The arm of the statue broke in delivery and the statue had to be reconstructed. It may not make it here in time for the Feast of the Sacred Heart

I did panic a bit and might have had a little temper tantrum with the statue company. But then I thought...broken. That's it. Let me explain.

We are in the midst of celebrating two important solemnities in the life of the Church - the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ and the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart. Both feasts involve a certain sense of brokenness.

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Jesus took the bread, blessed it, broke it and gave it to them. Broken. This bread that comes from crushed wheat and grains in transformed into something that not only nourishes but saves. What does it require of us? That we bring our entire selves to the celebration of the Eucharist, including our brokenness so that this too must be transformed.

We will soon undertake in a strong way the Eucharistic Revival throughout parishes in the Diocese of Rockville Centre. There is a strong focus on the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. There should be. Recent studies of our understanding of the Eucharist are alarming. We are not coming for a nice meal or social gathering. We are not fed with reminders of Jesus. We are fed and nourished by and worship the Real Presence of Jesus. But this can never ever be separated from what the Eucharist calls to become.

THE PASTOR'S POST

If we just come to adore or attend but do not seek to become this Body of Christ, it risks just becoming idol worship. We come not to encounter a thing (the sacred host, the precious blood) but a person. Like any real relationship, we must be open to that relationship that can transform us. In a sense, brokenness required.

This Friday, we will celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. We are now in Day 4 and 5 of the Novena to the Sacred Heart. (As of this writing there are still some books available at the doors of the Church as well as novena prayer cards.) The image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus touches us in many different ways and different parts of the image may reach us differently. I have always found some consolation in this image. In my last parish, I lit a candle by the shrine of the Sacred Heart and prayed a prayer to the Sacred Heart every day. I can't even totally tell you why. I guess I saw the broken and wounded heart of Jesus pouring out. He knows my brokenness and woundedness. He knows my neediness and desperation. I just need to take more time to know and feel this loving heart that wants to mend mine. Again, brokenness required.

So I'm not sure we'll have a new statue this Thursday night. I am a little broken hearted about it. I had hoped it would be another beautiful way to remember the great contributions of Sister Ann and Socorro Moreno and a beautiful way to end the Novena to the Sacred Heart. Plans broken. Maybe we'll be better for it! Not only a better statue but even more time to reflect on the love of Jesus poured out for you and me in the gift of the Eucharist and the Sacred Heart. Absence sometimes makes the heart grow fonder!

Maybe good days for you and me to be aware of our brokenness and instead of trying to fix everything ourselves to believe more in the power of the Eucharist and the passion of Jesus' wounded heart. Let us say together, "Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in you!" We need only acknowledge our brokenness to say that from our heart.

If you can, please say a prayer for me. I promise the same.

Father Jim

Welcome Seminarian Nick!

¡Bienvenido seminarista Nick!

Dear St. Brigid's Parish Community,

I am incredibly excited to be coming to your parish this summer for my summer assignment! I am grateful especially for this opportunity to get know you all and to pray together in the coming months. I have heard so much about what a lively and joyful community St. Brigid's is and I hope to learn a lot. Before arriving in Westbury on June 21st, I want to reach out to you all to introduce myself. I am originally from the town of Aquebogue, in the far east end of Long Island. I graduated from Riverhead High School in 2016, after which I pursued my vocation to the priesthood. I have been a seminarian for the Diocese of Rockville Centre now for seven years. I am currently living and studying at the North American College in Rome, Italy where I have been for two years. My summer in Westbury will be my first time back in the United States since I left for Rome. In my free time I enjoy backpacking and playing the tuba. I will keep you all in my prayers in the coming weeks before we meet. I very much appreciate your prayers as well!

Peace and blessings - Nick Waldron

Querida comunidad parroquial de Santa Brígida,

Estoy increíblemente emocionado de venir a su parroquia este verano para mi asignación de verano. Estoy especialmente agradecido por esta oportunidad de conocerlos a todos y de rezar juntos en los próximos meses. He oído hablar mucho de lo viva y alegre que es la comunidad de Santa Brígida y espero aprender mucho. Antes de llegar a Westbury el 21 de junio, quiero llegar a todos ustedes para presentarme. Soy originario de la ciudad de Aquebogue, en el extremo este de Long Island. Me gradué de Riverhead High School en 2016, después de lo cual seguí mi vocación al sacerdocio. He sido seminarista de la Diócesis de Rockville Centre durante siete años. Actualmente estoy viviendo y estudiando en el Colegio Norteamericano en Roma, Italia, donde he estado durante dos años. Mi verano en Westbury será la primera vez que regrese a los Estados Unidos desde que me fui a Roma. En mi tiempo libre me gusta ir de mochilero y tocar la tuba. Os tendré a todos en mis oraciones en las próximas semanas antes de reunirnos. Precio mucho sus oraciones.

Paz y bendiciones -Nick Waldron

ORDINARY TIME

Last Sunday, the Church concluded the celebration of the great 50 days of the Easter Season. We now return to Ordinary Time. This is the space in the liturgical cycle between Christmas and Lent and Easter and Advent. You'll notice some different things in our prayer:

- The Paschal Candles have been taken from the sanctuary and placed near fonts in the Chapel and the Church.
- Our Art and Environment Ministry now decorates much more simply as we are not in the season of Easter.
- While always an option, we will probably not be using the Rite of Blessing and Sprinkling with Water as we have used it the Easter season.
- We will return to using the Nicene Creed at Sunday Masses and at Holy Days of Obligation.
- As we are in Year A of the liturgical cycle, on Sundays, we will primarily pray with the Gospel of Matthew.

Ordinary Time is a time for growth and maturation, a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into history until all things are finally caught up in Christ. The goal, toward which all of history is directed, is represented by the final Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

KOMINOTE AYISYÉN

Commentary of the Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Frères et sœurs, bonsoir, nous célébrons aujourd'hui la fête du Saint-Sacrement, ou plus précisément la fête du corps et du sang de Jésus. C'est la fête du don sans mesure. Jésus a donné sa vie pour nous. Il l'a fait par amour.

Jésus nous explique que ce sacrement nous uni à lui de manière parfaite. Il continue a nous dire: "celui qui mange sa chair et boit son sang demeure en lui". Réciproquement, Paul l'affirme, il vit en nous. La merveille de l'eucharistie réalise une parfaite union dans l'amour. Nous recevons en nous Jésus lui-même et, dans le même temps, nous sommes inclus en lui. La relation que nous entretenons avec Jésus est une participation à sa relation au Père. Jésus vit par le Père, c'est -à -dire recoit sa vie du Père et dirige toute sa vie en fonction de la gloire du Père. De la même façon, l'eucharistie nous fait vivre par Jésus. Il vient en nous pour nous communiquer sa vie d'union au Père. Il nous enseigne a orienter notre vie en fonction de la gloire du Père.

L'eucharistie est un trésor extraordinaire. C'est le don de tout l'être de Jésus qui se met à notre service. Il est le sommet et la source de la vie Chrétiennes, la manifestation de l'amour de Jésus pour nous, une action par laquelle Jésus parvient a établi un contact très personnel avec chacun de nous.

Accueillons cet extraordinaire don du Seigneur. Qu'il nous unisse avec Jésus et aussi les uns avec les autres. Que le Seigneur continue par se donner pour notre paix et celle du monde. Qu'il vient combler notre faim. Qu'il ne cesse de creuser en nous le désir de communion

Looking Ahead...Eleventh Sunday Ordinary Time

Consider praying this prayer from the Roman Missal that will be part of our liturgy for next Sunday:

O God, strength of those who hope in you, graciously hear our pleas, and, since without you mortal frailty can do nothing, grant us always the help of your grace, that in following your commands we may please you by our resolve and deeds. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

Considere rezar esta oración del Misal Romano que será la parte de nuestra liturgia para el próximo domingo:

Señor Dios, fortaleza de los que en ti esperan, acude, bondadoso, a nuestro llamado y puesto que sin ti nada puede nuestra humana debilidad, danos siempre la ayuda de tu gracia, para que, en el cumplimiento de tu voluntad, te agrademos siempre con nuestros deseos y acciones. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espirity Santo y es Dios por los siglos de los siglos.
