World Day
for Grandparents and the Elderly 2023

Virgin Mary,
Mother of faith and hope,
an example for this humanity
bent by indifference, make me as willing as You to accept the will of God, to magnify and praise His Mercy Mary, Mother of fortitude, you who knows my heart,
do not allow me to become discouraged.
I confidently surrender my life into your hands.
Heal my wounds.
May your tenderness accompany me on the way.
Your presence, Mother of love, brings us to experience the joy of seeing our families united.
Help me to transmit the tenderness and Love of God to the grandchildren and youth so that,
in addition to praying for them,
we can pray with them.
Mary, may the gift of the Holy Spirit intercede for me:
sustain my weakness;
breathe into my heart the consolation that I may leave traces of faith among the young,
bearing witness to the beauty of life,
knowing that life has a limit and that beyond it lies before us our Father's embrace. Amen.

Virgen María,
Madre de la fe y de la esperanza, ejemplo para esta humanidad doblegada por la indiferencia, hazme tan dispuesto como Tú
a aceptar la voluntad de Dios, a magnificar y alabar su Misericordia María, Madre de la fortaleza, tú que conoces mi corazón,
no permitas que me desanime.
Te entrego confiadamente mi vida en tus manos.
Cura mis heridas.
Que tu ternura me acompañe en el camino.
Tu presencia, Madre del amor, nos hace experimentar la alegría de ver a nuestras familias unidas.
Ayúdame a transmitir la ternura
y el Amor de Dios
a los nietos y jóvenes para que, además de rezar por ellos, podamos rezar con ellos.
María, que el don del Espíritu Santo interceda por mí:
sostenga mi debilidad;
insufle en mi corazón el consuelo de que pueda dejar huellas de fe entre los jóvenes, dando testimonio de la belleza de la vida, sabiendo que la vida tiene un límite y que más allá está ante nosotros el abrazo de nuestro Padre. Amén.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

Information about the liturgical life of our parish!

REMEMBERING 9/11

We ask you in your goodness to give eternal light and peace to all who died here—the heroic first-responders: our firefighters, police officers, emergency service workers, and Port Authority personnel, along with all the innocent men and women who were victims of this tragedy simply because their work or service brought them here on September 11, 2001.

We ask you, in your compassion to bring healing to those who, because of their presence here that day, suffer from injuries and illness. Heal, too, the pain of still-grieving families and all who lost loved ones in this tragedy. Give them the strength to continue their lives with courage and hope.

We are mindful as well of those who suffered death, injury, and loss on the same day at the Pentagon and in Shanksville, Pennsylvania. Our hearts are one with theirs as our prayer embraces their pain and suffering.

God of peace, bring your peace to our violent world: peace in the hearts of all men and women and peace among the nations of the earth. Turn to your way of love those whose hearts and minds are consumed with hatred.

God of understanding, overwhelmed by the magnitude of this tragedy, we seek your light and guidance as we confront such terrible events. Grant that those whose lives were spared may live so that the lives lost here may not have been lost in vain.

Comfort and console us, strengthen us in hope, and give us the wisdom and courage to work tirelessly for a world where true peace and love reign among nations and in the hearts of all. Amen

Querida familia parroquial:

Mañana, 11 de septiembre, me parece un día duro. Creo que escribí sobre ello el año pasado. Hay algo en este día que se apodera de mí. Como todos los mayores de 30 años, probablemente recordamos dónde estábamos, qué hacíamos y la gravedad de ese día y de lo que ha seguido desde entonces.

Nuestras vidas han cambiado radicalmente desde el 11 de septiembre de 2011. Ya se trate de los aspectos prácticos de los viajes y la seguridad o de los lugares más profundos donde se han instalado el miedo, el racismo, los prejuicios y la ira, hemos cambiado. Por desgracia, vivimos en un mundo que se aprovecha de esas emociones y creencias equivocadas. Cuando corro en la cinta del gimnasio (sin comentarios), puedo ver muchas pantallas de televisión al mismo tiempo mostrando en las noticias fotos y videos una y otra vez. Es inquietante leer la manera en que escriben las noticias en los rótulos que cruzan la parte inferior de la pantalla, etcétera. Nos han tomado el pelo a muchos. Francamente, no somos libres.

Mientras pienso en este próximo lunes -algo de angustia ya se apodera de mí- pienso en nuestra celebración de hoy como iglesia y en las oraciones y lecturas que utilizamos. Pueden indicarnos dos cosas: la necesidad de verdadera sabiduría si queremos tener verdadera libertad, y no la libertad que este mundo puede convencernos de que necesitamos.

La verdadera sabiduría.

Hoy celebramos la Jornada Mundial de Oración por los Abuelos y los Ancianos. El Papa Francisco instituyó que esta fiesta esté cerca de la de San Joaquín y Santa Ana, a finales de julio. Los obispos de Estados Unidos pidieron que se trasladara a este fin de semana, ya que tradicionalmente es el Día Nacional de los Abuelos. Es un día para celebrar la sabiduría de nuestros abuelos y de las personas mayores, ya que nos recuerdan la necesidad de ser, incluso de ir un poco más despacio, antes de reaccionar y responder. En parte de su carta para este día, el Papa Francisco escribe: "Para apreciar mejor el modo de actuar de Dios, recordemos que nuestra vida está hecha para ser vivida en plenitud, y que nuestras más grandes esperanzas y sueños no se alcanza instantáneamente, sino a través de un proceso de crecimiento y maduración, en el diálogo y en la relación con los demás. Aquellas personas que se centran sólo en el aquí y ahora, en el dinero y las posesiones, en 'tenerlo todo ahora', están ciegos ante el modo en que Dios actúa." Es importante que recordemos esto: como individuos, familias, comunidades locales parroquiales, Iglesia y mundo. Se necesita tiempo. Se necesita tiempo para la curación, para que las cosas se arreglen solas, para la sanación. No todo se va a arreglar hoy. No pasa nada. Reconocerlo es un signo de sabiduría.

La verdadera libertad.

No estoy seguro de que prestemos mucha atención a las oraciones de la Misa... ¡pero deberíamos hacerlo! Escucha hoy parte de la oración colecta (u oración inicial). Hoy, en el 23º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, rezamos: "Mira con bondad a tus amados hijos e hijas, para que los que creen en Cristo reciban la verdadera libertad y la herencia eterna." Escucha esta oración y su sabiduría. Oramos como hijos e hijas amados de Dios. Esto es lo que somos y a través de Cristo oramos por la verdadera libertad. Esa verdadera libertad nunca vendrá de venganzas o represalias, desvaríos o confusiones, ideologías o ideales. Viene de Jesucristo. Y punto.

A veces me preocupa que estemos tan apegados a algunas cosas de este mundo (NOTA: me incluyo) que creamos que eso nos dará libertad. Nos involucramos en lemas y movimientos. Algunos incluso llevan la palabra pero no tratan de la verdadera libertad.

En mi propia oración de estos días, me encuentro orando por esa libertad de algunos de los apegos a los que puedo aferrarme. Un recurso que utilizo para ayudarme en la oración me ayuda a recordar que la verdadera libertad sólo viene "a través del camino, la verdad y la vida", Jesucristo.

¿Vivimos nuestra vida como si lo creyéramos? Si no es así, ¿a qué esperamos? Es hora de rezar por un poco de esa verdadera sabiduría. Si necesitamos algunas buenas imágenes, creo que sabemos dónde buscar.

Por favor, si puedes, reza una oración por mí. Prometo hacer lo mismo.

THE PASTOR'S POST

TRUE WISDOM AND TRUE FREEDOM

Dear Parish Family:

I find tomorrow - September 11 - a tough day. I believe I wrote about it last year. There is something about this day that grabs hold of me. Like those of over 30 or so, we probably remember where we were, what we were doing, and the gravity of that day and what has followed since.

Our lives have changed dramatically from September 11, 2011. Whether it's the practicals of travel and safety or the deeper places where fear, racism, prejudice, and anger have taken hold, we are changed. Unfortunately, we live in a world that "preys" on those emotions and misguided beliefs. When I run on the treadmill at the gym (no comments), I am able to see many screens up at once showing various television news stations. It's disturbing how things are written, what pictures and videos are shown again and again, lines that cross the bottom of the screen and so on. The preying upon us has led so many of us to be played. Frankly, we're not free.

As I think of this upcoming Monday - and some angst already takes hold in me - I think about our celebration today as a church and the prayers and readings we use. They can point us to two things - the need for true wisdom if we're going to have true freedom, not the freedom this world might convince us we need.

True Wisdom.

Today we celebrate the World Day of Prayer for Grandparents and the Elderly. Pope Francis instituted this feast day to be near the Feast of SS. Joachim and Anne at the end of July. The bishops of the United States asked that it move to this weekend as it is traditionally National Grandparents Day. It is a day to celebrate the wisdom of our grandparents and the elderly as they remind us of the need to be, to even slow down a bit, before we react and respond. In part of his letter for this day, Pope Francis writes, "To better appreciate God's way of acting, let us remember that our life is meant to be lived to the full, and that our greatest hopes and dreams are not achieved instantly but through a process of growth and maturation, in dialogue and in relationship with others. Those who focus only on the here and now, on money and possessions, on 'having it all now' are blind to the way God works." This is important for us to remember - as individuals, families, parish local communities, Church, and world. It takes time. It takes time for healing, for things to work themselves out, for healing. It is not all going to get settled today. This is OK. An acknowledgment of this is a sign of wisdom.

True Freedom.

I'm not sure we pay too close attention to the prayers of the Mass...but we should! Listen to part of the Collect (or opening prayer) today. Today, on the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, we pray, "look graciously upon your beloved sons and daughters, that those who believe in Christ may receive true freedom and an everlasting inheritance." Listen to this prayer and its wisdom. We pray as God's beloved sons and daughters. This is who we are and through Christ pray for true freedom! That true freedom will never come from revenge or retaliations, rants or raves, ideologies or ideals. It comes from Jesus Christ. Period.

I worry sometimes that we are so attached to some of the things of this world (NOTE: I include myself) that we believe that will give us freedom. We wrap ourselves in mottos and movements. Some even have the word in it but they are not about true freedom.

In my own prayer these days, I find myself praying for that freedom from some of the attachments I can grab on to. A resource I use to aid me in prayer helps as it reminds that true freedom only comes "through the way, the truth, and the life", Jesus Christ.

Do we live our lives like we believe that? If not, what are we waiting for? It's time to pray for some of that true wisdom. If we need some good images, I think we know where to look.

Please, if you can, say a prayer for me. I promise the same.

FEAST OF ST. LORENZO CELEBRATION

SAVE THE DATE + SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 2023
2:00 P.M. MASS + OUR LADY'S CHAPEL + FESTIVITIES AFTER IN CODE

St. Lorenzo Ruiz

The first Filipino Saint, known to be the Patron Saint of the Filipino youth, overseas workers, and altar servers.

by: Mitzi Santos

EARLY YEARS

- St. Lorenzo Ruiz was born on November 28, 1594 in Binondo, Manila, Philippines
- He had a Chinese father and a Filipino mother, and his family shaped him into becoming a God-fearing person.
- His childhood was filled with prayers, religious rituals and praise and worship.
- He was educated at the Convent of Santo Domingo led by Dominican Friars.
- He became an altar boy and discovered that the Church is his personal sanctuary.

ADULTHOOD

- He married a Filipina named Rosario and they had three children.
- It was not an easy journey for them as a family living a simple life but they held onto their faith amidst the difficult reality of life.
- In 1636, his life was challenged by being accused of murdering a Spaniard, a crime he did not commit.
- He escaped and boarded a ship to Japan.

ROAD TO MARTYRDOM

- Japan was a country where they persecuted faithful and devout Christians, believers were oppressed and Lorenzo started his journey to Martyrdom.
- Lorenzo and his companions were held captives for two years by the Japanese officials and were ordered to recant their faith.
- Those who remained faithful were tortured and hanged upside down.
- Lorenzo was one of those people whose faith remained unbroken.
- His response to the pain and torture was deepened devotion and fervent prayers "I am a Catholic and wholeheartedly do accept death for God. Had I a thousand lives, all these to Him shall I offer."

ROAD TO SAINTHOOD

- Lorenzo's martyrdom paved triumphant affirmation and it continues to thrive in the hearts of the faithful.
- In the Philippines, Lorenzo's spirit is highly honored because he truly embodies the strength, resilience, and faithfulness which Filipinos hold onto in times of difficulties.
- His great influence extends beyond the boundaries of his homeland and has reached many Christians around the globe.
- On February 18, 1981, Lorenzo was beatified by Pope John Paul II. The beatification ceremony was held in the Philippines making it the first beatification ceremony ever held outside the Vatican.
- His canonization took place at the Vatican on October 18, 1987. This was based on a miracle that took place in 1983, when Cecilia Alegria Policarpio, a two-year old girl suffering from in-born brain atrophy (hydrocephalus) was cured after her family and supporters prayed to Lorenzo for his intercession.

"I am a Catholic and wholeheartedly do accept death for God. Had I a thousand lives, all these to Him shall I offer." St. Lorenzo Ruiz

23rd Sunday Ordinary Time

Frères , Soeurs et amis(es), les textes de la liturgie de ce 23 -ème dimanche nous lancent un appel à vivre dans l'amour.

Dans la première lecture, le prophète développe l'idée de la responsabilité personnelle. D'après lui, chacun doit rendre compte à Dieu de ses propres actes. Sa vocation comme prophète est d'être un guetteur pour la maison d'Israël (1er lect.). Comme guetteur, il a un double mission: d'être attentive à ce qui survient pour alerter le peuple St Paul nous redit que l'accomplissement parfait de la Loi, c'est l'amour.(2ème Lect). Il parle d'amour mutual ! Oui, l'amour a besoin d'un vis-à- vis. Tout se joue dans des relations vraies. La vraie vie est dans le don de soi."Celui qui aime les autres à pleinement accompli la loi.

Jésus dans l'Evangile invite à la correction fraternelle. Personne ne doit se désintéresser de son frère. Si ton frère te cause du tort, aller le trouver pour lui parler. Et, si nécessaire encore, ouvrir ce dialogue: d'abord à un ou deux témoins, puis, si nécessaire encore, en assemblée. Être tenace dans cette main tendue. En sachant que ce qui vaut pour l'autre, vaut aussi pour moi Jésus nous redit : " Si deux d'entre vous se mettent d'accord, Jésus est là. Que le Seigneur vous aide à vivre dans la droiture, à être des guetteurs et responsables les uns des autres.

Diocesan Encuentro

Members of our Spanish community, led by our Spanish Young Adult Group, joined with our diocese for annual day of prayer, fellowship, and games. Bishop Barres celebrated Mass in the Chapel of the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception. Our soccer team also came in second place in the tournament as part of the day!

Miembros de nuestra comunidad hispana, encabezados por nuestro Grupo de Jóvenes Adultos Españoles, se unieron a nuestra diócesis para un día anual de oración, compañerismo y juegos. El Obispo Barres celebró la Misa en la Capilla del Seminario de la Inmaculada Concepción. ¡Nuestro equipo de fútbol también quedó en segundo lugar en el torneo como parte del día!

PARISH OUTREACH

We are here to serve and care for you!

If you're struggling with something and not sure where to turn, please turn to St. Brigid's. We may not be able to address all concerns but will do our best to help and/or refer you for additional support. Our Parish provides confidential support and assistance. Immigration concerns, food insecurity, serious illness, economic problems, mental health concerns and many others are issues we may all face at different times in our lives.

Si tiene problemas con algo y no está seguro de a dónde acudir, diríjase a St. Brigid's. Es posible que no podamos abordar todas las inquietudes, pero haremos todo lo posible para ayudarlo y/o recomendarlo para obtener asistencia adicional. La oficina de ayuda provee apoyo y ayuda confidencialmente. Las preocupaciones de inmigración, la inseguridad alimentaria, las enfermedades graves, los problemas económicos, los problemas de salud mental y muchos otros son problemas que todos podemos enfrentar en diferentes momentos de nuestras vidas.

Our Parish Outreach program, located in the Father Schaefer Outreach Building, provides a range of social services for people of the local community.

St. Pius X Residence for Retired Priests

Caring for those who cared for us.

Embracing the Legacy of Service

The mission of St. Pius X Residence is to provide a nurturing environment that respects and cherishes the lifelong commitment of our beloved priests. The Residence strives to create a warm and supportive community where they can enjoy their retirement years with dignity, surrounded by like-minded individuals who share their dedication to faith.

As our elderly priests enter this stage of their life, they often experience ongoing challenges that require added care and attention, and because of you, the St Pius X Residence is there for them. Even in retirement, our priests continue to make a profound impact on the spiritual and personal lives of Catholics of all ages. When they are able, they celebrate Mass in area parishes, visit the sick and homebound, and bring God's Word to those in prison.

Embrace the Legacy of Service by supporting our beloved priests in their retirement years.

The New Rector, Fr. Steve Pietrowski

"I am so proud to be able to serve all the wonderful priests residing at St Pius. This house provides a place for our priests who have a need for care and help for daily activities. It's a safe place to age gracefully. Here at St. Pius, we provide for one another. We call this place home," shared Fr. Pietrowski

Msgr. Ron Richardson:

I like the new location very much, the company is great. When I was living on my own for a number of years, I felt a sense of isolation, especially during Covid but here I am with many of my fellow priests who I served with at times throughout the years. I've always been a walker, most of my life I've walked and jogged. I love the outdoors and I am so grateful to be here at this gorgeous campus."

The special collection for retired priests living at St. Pius X Residence will take place next weekend. Please be as generous as possible!

Thank You! www.drvc.org/st-pius-x-residence/

PLEASE CONTRIBUTE ONLINE AND DROP YOUR ENVELOPE IN THE COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND - 9/16 -17

Abrazando el legado de servicio

La Residencia San Pío X tiene como misión ofrecer a nuestros queridos sacerdotes un ambiente edificante, en donde se respeta y aprecia su compromiso de vida. Esta Residencia se enfoca en crear un ambiente cálido y de hermandad donde puedan disfrutar su jubilación dignamente, rodeados de otras personas que comparten su misma dedicación a la fe.

Al comenzar esta etapa de vida, nuestros sacerdotes ancianos avanzan en edad, por lo que requieren cuidados y atenciones adicionales, y gracias a su aporte es que la Residencia San Pío X les puede brindar esa ayuda. Aun cuando ya se jubilaron, nuestros sacerdotes continúan teniendo un profundo impacto en las vidas espirituales y personales de católicos de todas las edades. Cuando les es posible, ellos celebran la Santa Misa en parroquias cercanas, visitan personas enfermas o confinadas en sus casas, y llevan la Palabra de Dios a los encarcelados.

Abrace el Legado de Servicio con su donativo a favor de nuestros queridos sacerdotes jubilados.

El Padre Steve Pietrowski, quien es el nuevo Rector nos dice:
"Me llena de orgullo poder servir a los maravillosos sacerdotes que residen aquí en San Pío. Acogemos a nuestros sacerdotes cuando ellos necesitan cuidado y ayuda con sus actividades diarias. Este es un sitio seguro donde ellos viven dignamente esta etapa de sus vidas. Aquí en San Pío nos apoyamos unos a otros. Este es nuestro hogar."

Monseñor Ron Richardson nos dice:
Me encanta este nuevo local y tengo magníficos compañeros. Por muchos años viví solo por lo que me sentía algo aislado y lo sentí aún más durante el tiempo de Covid, pero hoy aquí vivo con otros sacerdotes con los que en años pasados coincidí haciendo servicio. Siempre me ha gustado caminar y hacer jogging. Disfruto del aire libre y estoy muy agradecido de vivir en este hermoso lugar.

El próximo fin de semana será la colecta pro fondos de la Residencia Geriátrica San Pío X en donde viven sacerdotes jubilados. ¡Por favor sea tan generoso como sea posible! ¡Muchas Gracias!

POR FAVOR, CONTRIBUYA EN LÍNEA Y DEJE SU SOBRE EN LA COLECCIÓN EL PRÓXIMO FIN DE SEMANA - 9/16 -17

Looking Ahead....24th Sunday Ordinary Time

Consider praying this prayer from the Roman Missal that will be part of our liturgy for next Sunday:

*Look upon us O God, Creator and Ruler of all things,
and, that we may feel the working of your mercy,
grant that we may serve you with all our heart,
Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.*

Considere rezar esta oración del Misal Romano que será la parte de nuestra liturgia para el próximo domingo.:

*Señor Dios, creador y soberano, de todas las cosas, vuelve a nosotros tus ojos,
y concede que te servamos de todo corazón, para que experimentemos los efectos de tu misericordia.
Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo,
El que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo y es Dios por los siglos de los siglos.*
