Prayer in Time of War

O God, merciful and strong,
who crush wars and cast down the proud,
be pleased to banish violence swiftly from our midst
and to wipe away all tears,
so that we may all truly deserve to be called your children.

Dios, fuerte y misericordioso,
que quebrantas las guerras y humillas a los soberbios,
dignate aparte pronto de nosotros
las crueldades y los sufrimientos,
para que todos merezcamos ser llamados en verdad hijos tuyos.

Pray for Peace!

THE PASTOR'S POST

CHOCK FULL O'NUTS

Dear Parish Family:

The first reading today is a reading that is chosen by many family members for the funeral of a loved one. It gives a vision, I think, of the heavenly realm. (I have to tell you the Order of Christian Funerals leaves out the part about the rich foods and choice wines!) It offers a vision of the God who feeds us on many levels and consoles us in our times of need. It makes sense that many families consider it for their funerals of their loved ones.

Recently, I celebrated the funeral of a good friend's mom. She was famous for many things, including her chocolate chip cookies. They were often brought to her children's homes in a Chock-full o' Nuts coffee can (which had to be returned if you wanted more cookies). They had the coffee can at the wake and even a chocolate chip cookie for each visitor to take home using the famous recipe. I don't know if you remember the jingle but this coffee was the "heavenly coffee". You can google the jingle. It's even written on the can. I used that coffee can as part of the homily. A good reminder to me, and I hope to others, that we should always have that heavenly vision while here on earth.

I think of my friend and her mom often these days. Part of that thought and prayer is probably related to the time of her passing. It's only been a few weeks. I also consider the journey of the past years with my friend and her mom. It was not the easiest journey. It involved difficult conversations about leaving one's home and moving to assisted living. The challenges of aging and health required hospital visits and greater levels of care provided by rehab facilities and nursing homes. This required incredible attention and vigilance to make sure my friend's mom was receiving the proper and safe care. Declining health required a nursing home change. Then, after a lot of ups and downs, my friend made the difficult decision to bring her mom to her home and to care for her there. This required a significant amount of time and energy and more vigilance with in-home aides, managing doctors visits and transportation and so on. This corresponded with the increasing effects of aging and illness and eventually another hospital admission and transfer to an inpatient hospice.

I write this to you during Respect Life Month. I am inspired by my friend's care of her mom to her final days. It is a journey of care that many family members and loved ones take. I know it in my own life. There are so many ups and downs, so much to manage, not to mention the pain of caring for one you love who is dying. It's not easy. Yet it is a journey we must take.

We live in a world where there are some - even medical professionals- who would say don't bother. It's not worth the time and effort. There are even some who argue it's OK to end one's life prematurely. This is the opposite of what it is to be a disciple at the service of the Gospel. We must work to care for and sustain life at all times and stages. Many times things like Respect Life Month and use of Catholic teaching can focus on the beginning of life with a failure to remember that all life is sacred - from conception to natural death. The challenges may be different at various stages but commitment is the same. It is a call to recognize life and death are not human decisions. They are divine decisions. It is not our decision to make them but our responsibility to always surrender to God's will, regardless of the stage of life.

As uncomfortable as these things can be, it is good to have some of these conversations when we're relatively healthy so those we love know our wishes and how our faith informs and inspires our decisions regarding health care, particularly at the end of life. To learn about what our faith teaches us and to have these conversations is something that should not wait.

Is this, at times, challenging and overwhelming? Yes both for the ones facing the end of life and those who love them. We believe, though, this is never a journey we walk alone. The Lord walks with us every step of the way and often puts angels along the way to guide us and encourage us. I have found signs of grace in these moments, gentle reminders of God's consolation.

To see my friend navigate this journey with her mom was humbling and challenging. She made sacrifices in ways I have seen few undertake. Yet, my friend accepted - maybe surrendered - to the call to care for her mom. She accompanied her mom in beautiful and amazing (and difficult) ways to "mountain of the Lord of hosts" (Isaiah 25:6). As hard the journey was, parts of it were heavenly...surrendering to God's will here and now confident that God embraces us in the life to come.

Say a prayer for my friend and her mom. If you can, please say a prayer for me. I promise the same.

EL POST DEL PARROCO

CHOCK FULL O'NUTS

Querida familia parroquial:

La primera lectura de hoy es una lectura que eligen muchos familiares para el funeral de un ser querido. Da una visión, creo yo, del reino celestial. (Tengo que decirles que el Orden de los funerales cristianos omite la parte de las comidas ricas y los vinos selectos). Ofrece una visión de Dios que nos alimenta a muchos niveles y nos consuela en nuestros momentos de necesidad. Tiene sentido que muchas familias lo tengan en cuenta para los funerales de sus seres queridos.

Hace poco celebré el funeral de la madre de una buena amiga. Era famosa por muchas cosas, entre ellas sus galletas de chocolate. A menudo las llevaba a casa de sus hijos en una lata de café de Chock-full O'Nuts (que había que devolver si querías más galletas). En el velorio tenían la lata de café e incluso una galleta de chocolate para que cada visitante se llevara a casa con la famosa receta. No sé si recordáis el jingle pero este café era el "café celestial". Puedes googlear el jingle. Incluso está escrito en la lata. Utilicé esa lata de café como parte de la homilía. Un buen recordatorio para mí, y espero que para los demás, de que siempre debemos tener esa visión celestial mientras estemos aquí en la tierra.

Estos días pienso a menudo en mi amiga y en su madre. Parte de esos pensamientos y oraciones están probablemente relacionados con el momento de su fallecimiento. Sólo han pasado unas semanas. También pienso en el viaje de los últimos años con mi amiga y su madre. No fue el viaje más fácil. Implicó conversaciones difíciles sobre el abandono del hogar y el traslado a una residencia asistida. Los retos del envejecimiento y la salud exigían visitas al hospital y mayores niveles de atención en centros de rehabilitación y residencias de ancianos. Esto requirió una atención y una vigilancia increíbles para asegurarse de que la madre de mi amigo recibía los cuidados adecuados y seguros. El deterioro de su salud exigió un cambio de residencia. Después de muchos altibajos, mi amiga tomó la difícil decisión de traer a su madre a casa y cuidarla allí. Esto requirió una cantidad significativa de tiempo y energía y más vigilancia con ayudantes a domicilio, gestión de las visitas al médico y el transporte, etc. Esto se correspondió con el aumento de los efectos del envejecimiento y la enfermedad y, finalmente, con otro ingreso hospitalario y el traslado a un centro de cuidados paliativos para pacientes ingresados.

Les escribo esto durante el Mes del Respeto a la Vida. Me inspira el cuidado que mi amiga prestó a su madre hasta sus últimos días. Es un camino de cuidados que recorren muchos familiares y seres queridos. Lo conozco en mi propia vida. Hay tantos altibajos, tantas cosas que gestionar, por no mencionar el dolor de cuidar a un ser querido que se está muriendo. No es fácil. Sin embargo, es un viaje que debemos emprender.

Vivimos en un mundo en el que hay algunos -incluso profesionales de la medicina- que dirían que no nos molestemos. No merece la pena dedicarle tiempo ni esfuerzo. Incluso hay quienes sostienen que está bien acabar con la propia vida prematuramente. Esto es lo contrario de lo que significa ser un discípulo al servicio del Evangelio. Debemos trabajar para cuidar y sostener la vida en todo momento y etapa.

Muchas veces, cosas como el Mes del Respeto a la Vida y el uso de la doctrina católica pueden centrarse en el comienzo de la vida sin recordar que toda vida es sagrada, desde la concepción hasta la muerte natural. Los retos pueden ser diferentes en las distintas etapas, pero el compromiso es el mismo. Es una llamada a reconocer que la vida y la muerte no son decisiones humanas. Son decisiones divinas. No es nuestra decisión tomarlas, sino nuestra responsabilidad rendirnos siempre a la voluntad de Dios, independientemente de la etapa de la vida en que nos encontremos.

Por incómodas que puedan resultar estas cosas, es bueno mantener algunas de estas conversaciones cuando estamos relativamente sanos, para que nuestros seres queridos conozcan nuestros deseos y sepan cómo nuestra fe informa e inspira nuestras decisiones sobre la atención sanitaria, especialmente al final de la vida. Aprender lo que nos enseña nuestra fe y mantener estas conversaciones es algo que no debe esperar.

¿Es esto, a veces, difícil y abrumador? Sí, tanto para la persona que se enfrenta al final de su vida como para sus seres queridos. Sin embargo, creemos que nunca caminamos solos. El Señor camina con nosotros a cada paso y a menudo pone ángeles en el camino para guiarnos y animarnos. He encontrado signos de gracia en estos momentos, suaves recordatorios del consuelo de Dios.

Ver a mi amiga recorrer este camino con su madre fue humilde y desafiante. Hizo sacrificios que muy pocos han hecho. Sin embargo, mi amiga aceptó -quizá se rindió- a la llamada de cuidar de su madre. Acompañé a su madre de maneras hermosas y asombrosas (y difíciles) al "monte del Señor de los ejércitos" (Isaías 25:6). Por duro que fuera el viaje, algunas partes fueron celestiales... rendirse a la voluntad de Dios aquí y ahora con la confianza de que Dios nos abraza en la vida venidera. Reza una oración por mi amiga y su madre.

Si puedes, por favor, reza por mí. Prometo lo mismo.

LECTOR WORKSHOP

Thursday,
October 19th
7:30 p.m.

All lectors who read at English, Italian, and Kreyol language Masses on Sundays, weekdays, and at funerals are asked to attend this special meeting in the Church.

So dear brothers and sisters, let us not ignore God's word. It is a love letter, written to us by the One who knows us best. In reading it, we again hear his voice, see his face and receive his Spirit. That word brings us close to God.

-Pope Francis

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

Month of Remembrance November

During the month of November, we will take time - in a variety of ways - to remember and to pray for those who have died

All Souls Day Mass

7:30 p.m. Mass - Church (Iglesia) - English

7:30 p.m. Mass - Our Lady's Chapel - Spanish

Thursday, November 2, 2023

At this Mass in the Church, we will read out the names of those whose funeral was celebrated here at St. Brigid's in the past year. In the Chapel, all will be invited to write the names of loved ones in the Book of the Names of the Dead. Masses will also be celebrated at 7 a.m. and 12:10 p.m. in St. Brigid's Church.

Altar of Remembrance

During the month of November, we remember in a special way our loved ones who have died. This year, we will prepare a special Altar of Remembrance at the Mary Altar in St. Brigid's Church. Beginning November 1st, you are invited to place a picture on or near the altar so that we can pray for your loved ones. Please limit the size of your photo (perhaps no larger than 4 x 6") so there is room for everyone to participate. Please remember to write your name and phone # on the back of the picture. Pictures may be dropped off at St. Anthony's Hall as well. Please pick up your picture by November 30, 2023

All Souls Day Masses of Remembrance

All Souls Day envelopes are now available. These envelopes are a meaningful way for you to have your loved ones prayed for at Masses throughout the month of November. Envelopes may be returned either in the the collection basket or dropped off at St. Anthony Hall. Special masses will be offered for nine (9) days throughout the month of November for these intentions.

Book of the Names of the Dead

Beginning November 1st, a special book will be placed by the Mary Altar for members of our parish community to write down the names or loved ones who have died.

The names in this book will be remembered throughout the month of November.

Mes del Recordación noviembre

Durante el mes de noviembre, nos tomaremos el tiempo, de diversas maneras, para recordar y orar por los que han muerto.

Misa de Todos los Fieles Difuntos

7:30 pm. Misa - Capilla de Nuestra Señora - Español

7:30 pm. Misa - Iglesia - Ingles

2 de noviembre

En la Misa en la Iglesia, leeremos los nombres de aquellos cuyo funeral se celebró aquí en Santa Brígida el año pasado. En la Capilla, todos serán invitados a escribir los nombres de sus seres queridos en el Libro de los Nombres de los Muertos. También se celebrarán misas a las 7 a. m. y a las 12:10 p. m. en la Iglesia de Santa Brígida

Altar del Recordación

Durante el mes de noviembre recordamos de manera especial a nuestros seres queridos fallecidos. Este año, prepararemos un Altar de Recuerdo especial en la altar de María en la Iglesia de Santa Brígida. A partir del 1 de noviembre, está invitado a colocar el foto en el altar o cerca del altarn en el altar o cerca de él para que podamos orar por sus seres queridos. Limite el tamaño de su foto (quizás no más de 4 x 6") para que haya espacio para que todos participen. Recuerde escribir su nombre y número de teléfono en la parte posterior de la imagen. Las fotos también se pueden dejar en St. Anthony's Hall. Recoja su foto antes del 30 de noviembre de 2023.

Misa de recordación para el día de los difuntos

Todos los sobres del Día de los difuntos ya están disponibles. Estos sobres son una manera significativa para que oren por sus seres queridos en las misas durante todo el mes de noviembre. Los sobres pueden devolverse en la canasta de recolección o dejarse en St. Anthony Hall. Se ofrecerán misas especiales durante nueve (9) días durante todo el mes de noviembre por estas intenciones.

Libro de los nombres de los muertos

A partir del 1 de noviembre, se colocará un libro especial dentro de la altar de María para que los miembros de nuestra comunidad parroquial escriban los nombres de los seres queridos que han muerto.

Los nombres de este libro serán recordados durante todo el mes de noviembre.

2024 MASS INTENTIONS

In the Roman Catholic Church, there is a long tradition of asking for a specific intention to be remembered at Mass. These can include any of the following reasons - or more: in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (like, for instance, an Anniversary or Birthday), or, more commonly, for the repose of the soul of someone who has died. Often, when someone dies, people come to the parish and ask for an announced Mass Intention. Other reasons people ask for Mass Intentions include any of the above reasons and more. The Mass Intention is listed in the bulletin and announced at Mass.

In our parish, the announced intentions for one Mass is limited to two, unless it is one of the Sunday Masses in a particular language (that can be six announced intentions in one Mass). The standard offering for an announced Mass Intention is $20.00. Requests for announced Mass Intentions can be made in person at the Parish Center (St. Anthony's Hall, 85 Post Ave), or by going to <https://saintbrigid.net/worship/intentions>.

MASS INTENTIONS ARE OPEN FOR 2024 and
THERE ARE STILL AVAILABLE OPPORTUNITIES FOR 2023.

Maple Avenue Convent Update

When it comes to our financial realities, I always want to be as up with you as I can be. For many years, the Westbrook Residential High School has leased the convent building on Maple Avenue. Operated by St. Christopher Otten, this building provided an incredible service to adolescents and young adults in need. We have been blessed by their presence.

Last week, we learned that due to declining attendance and funding, they will take leave of the Convent property in January 2024. This negatively impacts our parish in two ways. First, this work is a tremendous blessing to so many and a privilege for us to be a location for this outreach. Second, this impacts our financial situation considerably as it makes up about 10% of our budget.

We are active pursuing other organizations who might be interested in making use of the convent building and hope to have it rented as quickly as possible. It has been well maintained over the years. Presently there are number of classrooms, counseling offices and the potential for a residential setting for up to 24 people. If you know of any organization interested, please contact Mr. Marcel Catafago at 516.334.0021 or via e-mail at marcel.c@saintbrigid.net.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Next Sunday, World Mission Sunday, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers and be generous in next week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith

Looking Ahead....29th Sunday Ordinary Time

Consider praying this prayer from the Roman Missal that will be part of our liturgy for next Sunday:

*Almighty and ever-living God,
grant that we may always conform our will to yours
and serve your majesty in sincerity of heart.
Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.*

*Considere rezar esta oración del Misal Romano que
será la parte de nuestra liturgia para el próximo
domingo.:*

*Concédenos Señor,
haz que nuestra voluntad sea siempre dócil a la
tuya y que te sirvamos con un corazón sincero.
Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo,
El que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu
Santo y es Dios por los siglos de los siglos.*
