THE PASTOR'S POST

IT'S NOT ABOUT YOU!

Dear Parish Family:

I remember a few days after my father passed away, a woman I worked with in the parish was very upset about not being able to be at the wake and funeral of my dad. She didn't know that he passed. She went on and on about being so sorry and so upset and how she couldn't believe this had happened to HER and she even started to cry. I smiled and after she stopped going on I finally said, "Margaret, it's not all about you." She did not miss a beat. In the midst of her tears she responded with a smile, "Oh, Fr. John. It's always about me." We had a good laugh then and it's an ongoing joke whenever we see each other.

Today, the Church calls us to celebrate World Mission Sunday on the second to last Sunday of October. Our call to support the missionary and evangelizing work of the Church is a reminder of the universal call of discipleship that we must always work to be for one another, in other words, it can't be about us. I see that happen in so many ways here at St. Brigid's. I'm writing this on Tuesday morning (after the bulletin deadline!) and think of the past 48 hours of examples. I see and hear it in a beautiful Family Life Ministry bridging together through song our Spanish and English communities. I see it the quiet care some leaders in our Spanish community are extending to young immigrants in need. I see it in the Ministry of Consolation taking time and effort to make sure the loved ones of those who have died are well taken care of during their time of grieving these past two days. I see it in the offer of a parishioner to help take the lead on our new Community Meal ministry. I see it in the work of our maintenance staff working so quietly behind the scenes to figure out ways to address ever increasing facilities issues in our school building so we can minister to our young people. I see it in the offering and patience of so many who are helping to get our Family Faith Formation program going. I see it in the generosity of a parishioner who said the other day, "Fr. John, use this for someone you're helping out. I don't want to know what you do with it." (That helped to pay for a young person's education, something I was not sure how I was going to accomplish up to that point.)...and I didn't even get to the Outreach building yet this week.

I share this not as a pat on the back or as an effort to say, "Look how good we are!" This is not my intention. It does demonstrate that in many places there is a sense that it is not about us, it is about the service of the other, often requiring a sacrifice on our part in some way. This is the work of the Church. A Church that is turned in on itself is a "tired Church" as Pope Francis warned at the Opening Mass of the Synod on Synodality. Can the same be said about individuals, families, groups, parishes, countries, institutions, etc.? If it's all about us and not about a response to God's call to serve, we're going to get exhausted.

This is where the missionary spirit of the Church is essential. It is not just about this Sunday or a collection taken up for the missionary work of the Church. It is about a spirit that has to pervade each one of us in every moment of our lives. So that we "who have come to know the risen Christ in the Scriptures and in the Eucharist, who carry his fire in their heart and his light in their gaze. (We) can bear witness to the life that never dies, even in the most difficult of situations and in the darkest of moments" (Pope Francis, Message for World Mission Day 2023). It is a vision of the risen Christ that I hope inspires us to witness to the Life that never dies.

This weekend, let us be mindful of the incredible missionary work of the Catholic Church that takes place throughout the world. Find a place of poverty, a place in need, a place devastated by some human or natural disaster and you won't find the Catholic Church far from that place. That's the work of the Church at the service of the Gospel. We must support this work in our prayer, generosity and action.

At the same time this missionary work does not require a journey to another part of the world as noble and life-giving as that can be. It requires an openness to the Spirit that calls each one of us to service of the Gospel here and now! Maybe this community of St. Brigid's where we are called so profoundly to love one another is the place to begin or deepen this missionary response. And, honestly, we need you. So does Jesus! That's ultimately who it is all about.

Please pray for me this week, if you can. I promise the same.

EL POST DEL PARROCO

¡NO SE TRATA DE TI!

Querida familia parroquial:

Recuerdo que unos días después de que falleciera mi padre, una mujer con la que trabajaba en la parroquia estaba muy disgustada por no poder estar en el velatorio y el funeral de mi padre. No supo que había fallecido. No paraba de decir que lo sentía mucho, que estaba muy disgustada y que no podía creer que le hubiera pasado esto a ELLA, e incluso se puso a llorar. Sonreí y cuando dejó de hablar le dije: "Margaret, no todo es por ti". Ella no perdió el ritmo. En medio de sus lágrimas respondió con una sonrisa: "Oh, P. John. Siempre se trata de mí". Nos reímos mucho y seguimos bromeando cada vez que nos veíamos.

Hoy, la Iglesia nos llama a celebrar la Jornada Mundial de las Misiones el penúltimo domingo de octubre. Nuestra llamada a apoyar la labor misionera y evangelizadora de la Iglesia es un recordatorio de la llamada universal del discipulado que siempre debemos trabajar para el otro, en otras palabras, no puede ser sobre nosotros.

Veo que eso sucede de muchas maneras aquí en St. Brigida. Estoy escribiendo esto el martes por la mañana (¡después de la fecha límite del boletín!) y pienso en las últimas 48 horas de ejemplos. Lo veo y lo oigo en un hermoso Ministerio de Vida Familiar que une a través de la canción a nuestras comunidades españolas e ingles. Lo veo en el cuidado silencioso que algunos líderes de nuestra comunidad española están extendiendo a jóvenes inmigrantes necesitados. Lo veo en el Ministerio de Consolación que dedica tiempo y esfuerzo para asegurarse de que los seres queridos de los que han fallecido estén bien atendidos durante su tiempo de duelo estos dos últimos días. Lo veo en el ofrecimiento de un feligrés para ayudar a dirigir nuestro nuevo ministerio de Comidas Comunitarias. Lo veo en el trabajo de nuestro personal de mantenimiento que trabaja silenciosamente entre bastidores para encontrar la manera de resolver los problemas cada vez mayores de las instalaciones de nuestro edificio escolar para que podamos atender a nuestros jóvenes. Lo veo en la ofrenda y la paciencia de tantos que están ayudando a poner en marcha nuestro programa de Formación en la Fe de la Familia (Catequesis). Lo veo en la generosidad de un feligrés que me dijo el otro día: "Padre John, utilice esto para alguien a quien esté ayudando. No quiero saber qué haces con él". (Eso ayudó a pagar la educación de un joven que yo no estaba seguro de cómo iba a hacerlo hasta ese momento)... y ni siquiera he llegado al edificio de Outreach esta semana.

Comparto esto no como una palmadita en la espalda ni como un esfuerzo por decir: "¡Mirad qué buenos somos!". No es esa mi intención. Lo que sí demuestra es que en muchos lugares existe la sensación de que no se trata de nosotros, sino del servicio al otro, que a menudo requiere un sacrificio por nuestra parte de alguna manera. Este es el trabajo de la Iglesia. Una Iglesia replegada sobre sí misma es una "Iglesia cansada", como advirtió el Papa Francisco en la Misa de apertura del Sínodo sobre la sinodalidad. ¿Puede decirse lo mismo de las personas, las familias, los grupos, las parroquias, los países, las instituciones, etc.? Si todo gira en torno a nosotros y no en torno a una respuesta a la llamada de Dios a servir, nos vamos a agotar.

Aquí es donde la labor misionera de la Iglesia es esencial. No se trata sólo de este domingo o de una colecta para la obra misionera de la Iglesia. Se trata de un espíritu que tiene que impregnar a cada uno de nosotros en cada momento de nuestra vida. Para que nosotros "que hemos conocido a Cristo resucitado en las Escrituras y en la Eucaristía, que llevamos su fuego en el corazón y su luz en la mirada. (Podemos) dar testimonio de la vida que nunca muere, incluso en las situaciones más difíciles y en los momentos más oscuros" (Papa Francisco, Mensaje para la Jornada Mundial de las Misiones 2023). Es una visión de Cristo resucitado que espero nos inspire a dar testimonio de la Vida que nunca muere.

Este fin de semana, seamos conscientes de la increíble labor misionera de la Iglesia católica que tiene lugar en todo el mundo. Busca un lugar de pobreza, un lugar necesitado, un lugar devastado por alguna catástrofe humana o natural y no encontrarás a la Iglesia católica lejos de ese lugar. Esa es la labor de la Iglesia al servicio del Evangelio. Debemos apoyar esta labor con nuestra oración, generosidad y acción.

Al mismo tiempo, esta labor misionera no requiere un viaje a otra parte del mundo, por noble y vivificante que pueda ser. Requiere una apertura al Espíritu que nos llama a cada uno de nosotros al servicio del Evangelio aquí y ahora. Tal vez esta comunidad de Santa Brígida, donde estamos llamados tan profundamente a amarnos unos a otros, es el lugar para comenzar o profundizar esta respuesta misionera. Y, sinceramente, te necesitamos. Jesús también.

En última instancia, se trata de eso.

Por favor, reza por mí esta semana, si puedes. Prometo lo mismo.

Maple Avenue Convent Update

When it comes to our financial realities, I always want to be as up front with you as I can be. For many years, the Westbrook Residential High School has leased the convent building on Maple Avenue. Operated by St. Christopher Otten, this building provided an incredible service to adolescents and young adults in need. We have been blessed by their presence.

Last week, we learned that due to declining attendance and funding, they will take leave of the Convent property in January 2024. This negatively impacts our parish in two ways. First, this work is a tremendous blessing to so many and a privilege for us to be a location for this outreach. Second, this impacts our financial situation considerably as it makes up about 10% of our budget.

We are active pursuing other organizations who might be interested in making use of the convent building and hope to have it rented as quickly as possible. It has been well maintained over the years. Presently there are number of classrooms, counseling offices and the potential for a residential setting for up to 24 people. If you know of any organization interested, please contact Mr. Marcel Catafago at 516.334.0021 or via e-mail at marcel.c@saintbrigid.net.

Month of Remembrance November

During the month of November, we will take time - in a variety of ways - to remember and to pray for those who have died

All Souls Day Mass

7:30 p.m. Mass - Church (Iglesia) - English

7:30 p.m. Mass - Our Lady's Chapel - Spanish

Thursday, November 2, 2023

At this Mass in the Church, we will read out the names of those whose funeral was celebrated here at St. Brigid's in the past year. In the Chapel, all will be invited to write the names of loved ones in the Book of the Names of the Dead. Masses will also be celebrated at 7 a.m. and 12:10 p.m. in St. Brigid's Church.

Altar of Remembrance

During the month of November, we remember in a special way our loved ones who have died. This year, we will prepare a special Altar of Remembrance at the Mary Altar in St. Brigid's Church. Beginning November 1st, you are invited to place a picture on or near the altar so that we can pray for your loved ones. Please limit the size of your photo (perhaps no larger than 4 x 6") so there is room for everyone to participate. Please remember to write your name and phone # on the back of the picture. Pictures may be dropped off at St. Anthony's Hall as well. Please pick up your picture by November 30, 2023

All Souls Day Masses of Remembrance

All Souls Day envelopes are now available. These envelopes are a meaningful way for you to have your loved ones prayed for at Masses throughout the month of November. Envelopes may be returned either in the the collection basket or dropped off at St. Anthony Hall. Special masses will be offered for nine (9) days throughout the month of November for these intentions.

Book of the Names of the Dead

Beginning November 1st, a special book will be placed by the Mary Altar for members of our parish community to write down the names or loved ones who have died.

The names in this book will be remembered throughout the month of November.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

Mes del Recordación

noviembre

Durante el mes de noviembre, nos tomaremos el tiempo, de diversas maneras, para recordar y orar por los que han muerto.

Misa de Todos los Fieles Difuntos

7:30 pm. Misa - Capilla de Nuestra Señora - Español

7:30 pm. Misa - Iglesia - Ingles

2 de noviembre

En la Misa en la Iglesia, leeremos los nombres de aquellos cuyo funeral se celebró aquí en Santa Brígida el año pasado. En la Capilla, todos serán invitados a escribir los nombres de sus seres queridos en el Libro de los Nombres de los Muertos. También se celebrarán misas a las 7 a. m. y a las 12:10 p. m. en la Iglesia de Santa Brígida

Altar del Recordación

Durante el mes de noviembre recordamos de manera especial a nuestros seres queridos fallecidos. Este año, prepararemos un Altar de Recuerdo especial en la altar de María en la Iglesia de Santa Brígida. A partir del 1 de noviembre, está invitado a colocar el foto en el altar o cerca del altarn en el altar o cerca de él para que podamos orar por sus seres queridos. Limite el tamaño de su foto (quizás no más de 4 x 6") para que haya espacio para que todos participen. Recuerde escribir su nombre y número de teléfono en la parte posterior de la imagen. Las fotos también se pueden dejar en St. Anthony's Hall. Recoja su foto antes del 30 de noviembre de 2023.

Misa de recordación para el día de los difuntos

Todos los sobres del Día de los difuntos ya están disponibles. Estos sobres son una manera significativa para que oren por sus seres queridos en las misas durante todo el mes de noviembre. Los sobres pueden devolverse en la canasta de recolección o dejarse en St. Anthony Hall. Se ofrecerán misas especiales durante nueve (9) días durante todo el mes de noviembre por estas intenciones.

Libro de los nombres de los muertos

A partir del 1 de noviembre, se colocará un libro especial dentro de la altar de María para que los miembros de nuestra comunidad parroquial escriban los nombres de los seres queridos que han muerto.

Los nombres de este libro serán recordados durante todo el mes de noviembre.

— November 7th Election Day — VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Under Construction!

This year we begin to set up the Precepio---the beautiful three-dimensional scene of the nativity that we build in our church---on Election Day. We are looking for volunteers to help build the platform, attach the background, assemble a large tree, and carry all the materials up from the church basement. We will work throughout the day, Tuesday, November 7th and especially need volunteers for the morning. If you're off from work or school that day, we especially need your time and talents in the morning and early afternoon, but we'll welcome people anytime throughout the day.

Sign up by calling 516-334-0021 or email frontdesk@saintbrigid.net

Looking Ahead....30th Sunday Ordinary Time

Consider praying this prayer from the Roman Missal that will be part of our liturgy for next Sunday:

*Almighty, ever-living God,
increase our faith, hope and charity,
and make us love what you command,
so that we may merit what you promise.
Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.*

*Considerare rezar esta oración del Misal Romano que será la parte de nuestra liturgia para el próximo
domingo.:*

*Dios todoroso y eterno,
aumenta en nosotros la fe, la esperanza la caridad
y para que merezcamos alcanza lo que nos prometes, conédenos amar lo que nos mandas.
Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo,
El que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu
Santo y es Dios por los siglos de los siglos.*
