WALK OF LIFE

An area in need of immediate attention is the walkway between St. Brigid's Church and the Rectory building. It has become overgrown at points and even more significant is the lifting of the concrete from the trees presently in place which are now creating significant safety risks.

With the assistance of a significant donation from a parishioner in memory of a loved one, we are not only able to make repairs but make something even more beautiful on St. Brigid Green.

This new walk of life will include:

- A statue of St. Brigid for all who pass by our beautiful Church to see.
- A place to sit and pray before the statues of the Blessed Mother (remaining) and St. Brigid.
- Opportunities to memorialize bricks in the name of loved ones for years to come.
- Opportunities to memorialize plantings that will make our grounds even more beautiful.

Opportunities to Support

If you would like to help sponsor or co-sponsor a part of this project (i.e. the statue of St. Brigid, a planting, a memorial brick, etc.) please contact Marcel Catafago at 516.334.0021 or email to marcel.c@saintbrigid.net

EL POST DEL PARROCO

TODO SOBRE EL AMOR

Querida familia parroquial:

Hace unos seis o siete años, desarrollé una mejor comprensión y una devoción más fuerte al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. Recuerdo que visité a una familia de la parroquia con la que entablé amistad. Se componía de muchas generaciones y me he mantenido cerca de ellos. Al venir a conocer, rezar, visitar y llevar la comunión a la matriarca y al patriarca de la familia, hablaron con fuerza de lo importante que era para ellos tener la imagen del Sagrado Corazón en su casa y de cómo su casa fue entronizada al Sagrado Corazón hace muchos años. Su fe y devoción informaron y desafiaron la mía.

Tenía la tradición -y sigo teniéndola cada vez que vuelvo- de encender una vela cada día ante la estatua del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús en la iglesia. Nos hacíamos unas estampitas con oraciones y yo me paraba un minuto, rezaba por una intención que llevaba en el corazón desde hacía muchos años (y sigo haciéndolo), rezaba la oración y luego encendía la vela. Me llevaba un minuto al día, pero era importante para mí. (San José recibe mi dinero para velas y mis oraciones estos días, como he escrito antes).

Hoy celebramos la Solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo. Este día, nos centramos en el don de la Eucaristía y lo hemos hecho a lo largo de este año... y continuaremos, lo prometo, en las próximas semanas. Con qué facilidad podemos dar por sentado el don de la Eucaristía. Espero que estos días nos recuerden el poder de la Eucaristía: el poder de hacernos más semejantes a Cristo en esta vida y de conocer a Cristo en la vida eterna. En definitiva, el don de la Eucaristía es un don de amor, el amor de Jesús derramado en su precioso cuerpo y en su sagrada sangre.

El calendario nos lleva a la Solemnidad del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús este próximo viernes, el segundo viernes después de Pentecostés. A primera vista, estoy bastante abrumado litúrgica y espiritualmente estos días - tiempo de Pascua, Pentecostés, Domingo de la Trinidad, Corpus Christi... y luego el Sagrado Corazón (y sin mencionar el Inmaculado Corazón de María este próximo sábado). Sin embargo, mientras intento centrarme en tratar de tener un gran aprecio por la Eucaristía, no puedo evitar ver el don del amor que ambas solemnidades nos llaman a reconocer, a entregarnos y a celebrar.

Hoy celebramos esta efusión de amor en la Eucaristía por parte de Jesús con la clara esperanza de que "nos convirtamos en lo que recibimos", como nos recuerda a menudo San Agustín (y Mons. Vlaun). Al convertirnos en lo que recibimos, rezamos cada vez en la Misa para que seamos la presencia de Jesucristo en cada momento de nuestras vidas.

¿Qué aspecto tiene eso? Parece que nuestros corazones laten al mismo ritmo de Jesucristo. Como Jesús mostró misericordia, nosotros mostramos misericordia. Como Jesús mostró compasión, nosotros mostramos compasión. Como Jesús llamó a otros a más, nosotros hacemos lo mismo. Como Jesús amó, nosotros amamos. Nuestro corazón late al ritmo, la frecuencia y el espíritu del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús.

Tal vez recuerden que el año pasado ofrecimos a la parroquia la Novena al Sagrado Corazón. Decidí no ofrecer este año ya que estamos enfocados en la Devoción de las 40 Horas y la celebración del Corpus Christi. Esta mañana temprano, alrededor de las 3:30 a.m. en la Iglesia, comencé la Novena al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. Estaba rodeado de otras 30 o 40 personas que rezaban ante el Santísimo Sacramento. Podía sentir el amor por Jesús y el amor que Jesús tenía por ellos. Qué mejor lugar para comenzar la Novena en presencia de la Presencia Real rodeado de aquellos que tan claramente aman a Jesús. Ayuda a sentar las bases de una buena novena y de la reflexión del diario. Está el poder del amor en el sacramento y la devoción.

Existe la tradición de rezar una Ofrenda Matutina que incluye una clara referencia al Sagrado Corazón. Existen varias versiones. He puesto un enlace a una en el boletín en línea. Otra hermosa tradición es rezar las Letanías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. He incluido una copia de una de ellas aquí en el boletín. Tal vez esta semana, mientras nos preparamos para celebrar la Solemnidad del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, podamos recurrir a esta devoción para recordar el gran amor de Jesús por nosotros y renovar nuestro compromiso de amarnos unos a otros.

Si puedes, rezar una oración por mí.

with you forever and ever. Amen.

THE PASTOR'S POST

ALL ABOUT LOVE

Dear Parish Family:

About six or seven years ago, I developed a better understanding and stronger devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. I remember visiting a family in the parish who I became friendly with. They composed many generations and I have remained close to them. In coming to meet, pray with, visit, and bring communion to the matriarch and patriarch of the family, they spoke powerfully about how important it was to them to have the Sacred Heart image in their home and how their home was enthroned to the Sacred Heart many years ago. Their faith and devotion informed and challenged mine.

I had a tradition - and still do whenever I go back - of lighting a candle each day at the statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in the church. We had small prayer cards made and I would stop for a minute, pray for an intention I carried in my heart there for many years (and still do), say the prayer and then light the candle. It took a minute a day but it was important to me. (St. Joseph gets my candle money and prayers these days as I have written about before.)

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This day, we focus on the gift of the Eucharist and have been focusing throughout this year...and will continue, I promise, in the weeks to come. How easily we can take the gift of the Eucharist for granted. I hope these days remind us of the power of the Eucharist - the power to make us more Christ-like in this life and to know Christ in eternal life. Ultimately, the gift of the Eucharist is a gift of love, the love of Jesus poured out in his precious body and sacred blood for each one of us.

The calendar brings us to the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus this upcoming Friday, the second Friday after Pentecost. At first glance, I am pretty overwhelmed liturgically and spiritually these days - Easter season, Pentecost, Trinity Sunday, Corpus Christ...and then the Sacred Heart (and not to mention the Immaculate Heart of Mary this upcoming Saturday). Yet, as I try to focus on trying to have a great appreciation for the Eucharist, I cannot help but see the gift of love that both solemnities call us to recognize, to surrender to and to celebrate.

Today, we celebrate this pouring out of love in the Eucharist by Jesus with the clear hope that we "become what we receive" as St. Augustine (and Msgr. Vlaun) reminds us about. In becoming what we receive, we pray each time at Mass that we will be the presence of Jesus Christ in every moment of our lives.

Well, what does that look like? It looks like our hearts are beating in the same rhythm of Jesus Christ. As Jesus showed mercy, we show mercy. As Jesus showed compassion, we show compassion. As Jesus called others to more, we do the same. As Jesus loved, we love. Our heart beats in the rhythm, the rate, and the spirit of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Last year, you might remember we offered the Novena to the Sacred Heart to the parish. I chose not to offer it this year as we are focused on the 40 Hours Devotion and Corpus Christi celebration. Early this morning around 3:30 a.m. in the Church, I started the Novena to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. I was surrounded by 30 or 40 other people praying before the Blessed Sacrament. I could feel the love for Jesus and love Jesus had for them. What better place to begin the Novena but in the presence of the Real Presence surrounded by those who so clearly love Jesus? It helps to provide the foundation for a good novena and journal reflection. There's the power of love in sacrament and devotion. It's not about praying at the 40 Hours Devotion or at three in the morning. It's all about love.

There is a tradition of praying a Morning Offering which includes clear reference to the Sacred Heart. There are a few versions of them. I linked to one in the online bulletin. Another beautiful tradition is to pray the Litany of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. I have included a copy of one here in the bulletin. Maybe this week, as we prepare to celebrate the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, we can turn to this devotion to remind us of Jesus' great love for us and renew our commitment to love one another.

If you can, please say a prayer for me.

Looking Ahead...Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Pray with next Sunday's readings and consider these questions. You can access the readings at www.usccb.org or by making use of the Sunday's Word or Sanctus books.

First Reading: Genesis 3:9-15

God requires love, fidelity, compassion and a personal relationship. God desires love not sacrifice.

- What obstacles get in the way of your relationship with God?

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

Like Abraham who trusted in God's word, we are to believe in the power of God to accomplish in us what we cannot accomplish ourselves.

- What does St. Paul invite us to do?

Gospel: Mark 3:20-35

Jesus asked, "Who are my mother and my brothers? He continued, "These are my mother and my brothers. Whoever does the will of God is brother and sister and mother to me.

- What do the scribes accuse Jesus of?
