THE PASTOR'S POST

NO KINGS

Dear Parish Family:

This Saturday it is expected that millions will gather for the "NO Kings" rallies around the country and the world. Under the headline, "Under America, we have no kings" many will come together in places big and small for these nonviolent protests seeking something new, something better.

For some, these are viewed as political rallies or opposition rallies only to one leader or party. For others, they are just another round of protests and voices that come and go. For others, they are part of a necessary movement for democracy. For others of us, they are a response to injustice, racism, and a destruction of the lives of others.

And they are carried out on Palm Sunday weekend.

Maybe it's a good reminder for us as we enter this Holy Week.

For there are no kings in our faith. There is one king - Christ the King. Period. Full stop.

I wonder at times if we forget this. For if we are honest, we worship at many other altars. Some of us worship at the altar of a president or governor or mayor or other political leader or political movement. Some of us worship at the altar of power and control. Others of us worship at the altar of this sin or that one. Others worship at the mirror thinking we are the masters of our own creation. And truthfully, at times and moments, we are all probably worshipping some earthly kingdom.

Welcome to Holy Week!

Today, we begin our liturgies singing "Hosanna" and welcoming our King, our ONLY king, Jesus Christ into the streets of Jerusalem! We prepare to be washed by the king and fed by him. We suffer with him and, we pray, by how we respond to this outpouring of love that one day we may know the heavenly Kingdom.

That only happens with Jesus Christ. There is no other king.

So this week, we are invited to let go of all the things we hold to that are worldly, that are not near Jesus, and seek his help to be set free. How many of us are struggling with seeds of racism and prejudice in our hearts, even though we are here at Mass? How many of us are driven by anger and resentment and cause great harm to others? How many of us forget the poor because we may have convinced ourselves that we are too high and too mighty to be bothered? How many of us have forgotten the poor? How many of us are loving WITH limits?

Welcome to Holy Week and welcome, in a particular way, here to St. Brigid's. Here I hope you can come pray with us, walk with us, serve with us, and be humbled with us by the unlimited love of Jesus for you and me. Then, I hope we can go forward together with great Easter hope ready to transform the worlds we dwell in ... not with earthy kingly power but with the heavenly power of resurrection and new life.

In addition to the works of prayer and community, I hope each one of us can find some time to just be quiet. No speaking. No noise. No rally. No procession. Just be quiet. What if each one of us just tries to find a quiet seat each day this week to be - it can be in your room, a part of your house, maybe in the Church? Maybe put a crucifix there with a small candle. Do something each day. If we each can try to take some time to talk from our hearts to our King, Jesus Christ, how great will that be! And more importantly, may we take even more time to listen. That will be even better.

So no kings. Amen! That's not a political statement. It is a statement of faith. May this week bring us closer to the King who inspired us to sing "Hosanna" - Jesus Christ.

Please pray for me. I promise the same.

EL POST DEL PARROCO

SIN REYES

Querida familia parroquial:

Se espera que este sábado millones de personas se reúnan en las manifestaciones bajo el lema «SIN Reyes» (NO Kings) en todo el país y el mundo. Bajo el titular «En Estados Unidos no tenemos reyes», muchos se congregarán en lugares grandes y pequeños para participar en estas protestas no violentas, buscando algo nuevo, algo mejor.

Para algunos, estas manifestaciones son vistas meramente como mítines políticos o protestas de la oposición dirigidas únicamente contra un líder o un partido. Para otros, son solo una ronda más de protestas y voces que van y vienen. Para otros más, forman parte de un movimiento necesario en defensa de la democracia. Y para otros de nosotros, constituyen una respuesta ante la injusticia, el racismo y la destrucción de la vida de nuestros semejantes.

Y todo esto tiene lugar precisamente durante el fin de semana del Domingo de Ramos. Quizás esto nos sirva como un oportuno recordatorio al adentrarnos en esta Semana Santa.

Pues en nuestra fe no existen los reyes. Hay un solo Rey: Cristo Rey. Punto. Sin más.

A veces me pregunto si acaso olvidamos esta verdad. Porque, si somos honestos, adoramos ante muchos otros altares. Algunos de nosotros adoramos ante el altar a un presidente, un gobernador, un alcalde u otro líder o movimiento político. Otros adoramos ante el altar del poder y del control. Otros adoramos ante el altar de este o aquel pecado. Otros se adoran a sí mismos frente al espejo, creyéndose los dueños y creadores de su propio destino. Y, a decir verdad, en ciertos momentos y circunstancias, es probable que todos estemos adorando a algún reino terrenal.

¡Bienvenidos a la Semana Santa!

Hoy comenzamos nuestras liturgias cantando «¡Hosanna!» y dando la bienvenida a nuestro Rey —nuestro ÚNICO Rey—, Jesucristo, en las calles de Jerusalén. Nos disponemos a ser lavados por el Rey y alimentados por Él. Sufrimos junto a Él y —así lo imploramos—, a través de nuestra respuesta a esta efusión de amor, esperamos alcanzar algún día el Reino celestial.

Eso solo es posible con Jesucristo. No existe otro rey.

Por ello, esta semana se nos invita a desprendernos de todas aquellas cosas mundanas a las que nos aferramos, de todo aquello que nos aleja de Jesús, y a implorar su ayuda para alcanzar la verdadera libertad. ¿Cuántos de nosotros luchamos contra las semillas del racismo y los prejuicios que anidan en nuestro corazón, aun estando aquí presentes en la Misa? ¿Cuántos de nosotros nos dejamos arrastrar por la ira y el resentimiento, causando un profundo daño a los demás? ¿Cuántos de nosotros olvidamos a los pobres porque tal vez nos hemos convencido de que somos demasiado elevados y poderosos como para molestarnos? ¿Cuántos de nosotros hemos olvidado a los pobres? ¿Cuántos de nosotros amamos CON límites? Bienvenidos a la Semana Santa y bienvenidos, de una manera especial, aquí a Santa Brígida. Aquí espero que puedan venir a rezar con nosotros, a caminar con nosotros, a servir con nosotros y a dejarse conmover, junto a nosotros, por el amor ilimitado de Jesús hacia ustedes y hacia mí. Luego, espero que podamos avanzar juntos con una gran esperanza pascual, listos para transformar los mundos en los que habitamos... no con el poder regio terrenal, sino con el poder celestial de la resurrección y de la vida nueva.

Además de las obras de oración y de comunidad, espero que cada uno de nosotros pueda encontrar un tiempo para simplemente guardar silencio. Sin hablar. Sin ruidos. Sin mítines. Sin procesiones. Simplemente guardar silencio. ¿Qué tal si cada uno de nosotros intenta encontrar un lugar tranquilo cada día de esta semana para simplemente ser? Puede ser en su habitación, en algún rincón de su casa, o tal vez en la iglesia. Quizás puedan colocar allí un crucifijo junto a una pequeña vela. Hagan algo cada día. Si cada uno de nosotros logra tomarse un tiempo para hablar desde el corazón a nuestro Rey, Jesucristo, ¡qué maravilloso será! Y, lo que es aún más importante: ojalá dediquemos todavía más tiempo a escuchar. Eso será aún mejor.

Así que: nada de reyes. ¡Amén! Esta no es una declaración política; es una declaración de fe. Que esta semana nos acerque más al Rey que nos inspiró a cantar «Hosanna»: Jesucristo.

Por favor, recen por mí. Yo les prometo hacer lo mismo.

Featherman

FAMILY FAITH FORMATION

FIRE / FUEGO

Our FIRE Confirmation Preparation Program is rooted in the belief that faith is both encountered and lived. Through dynamic sessions with guest presenters from our parish as well as from various Catholic High Schools and organizations, small-group discussion, and the guidance of dedicated Faith Mentors, our young people are invited to ask questions, share honestly, and grow in understanding.

Are you looking for a meaningful way to share your faith and make a lasting impact? Our FIRE Confirmation Program is seeking Faith Mentors, 21 years old to 99+ years old, to journey with middle school and high school students as they prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation.

This is NOT traditional teaching - it's all about building relationships, listening, guiding, and walking alongside young people as they grow in their faith. As a Faith Mentor, you will help foster a supportive, faith-filled community where students feel seen, heard, and encouraged as they come to know of a Lord and Savior who calls them His Beloved.

Commitment: 2 Thursdays per month, October through May Contact: Vince Buzzeo at (516) 334-0021, extension 356 or by email at vince.b@saintbrigid.net to learn more about becoming a FAITH MENTOR.

Looking Ahead... Easter Sunday

Pray with next Sunday's readings and consider these questions. You can access the readings at www.usccb.org or by making use of the Sunday's Word or Sanctus books.

First Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Peter preached about Jesus' baptism, the anointing with the Holy Spirit, works of kindness and healing and his crucifixion and resurrection from the dead. All who believe in him are forgiven.

- Why should we fear God when he called us his friend and children?
- Do you love your relatives and close friends?

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4

Think about what is above. When Christ appears, then you shall appear with him in glory.

- How are you tempted to seek new spiritual experiences, or to be better?
- What does it mean to be "hidden with Christ in God?"

Gospel: Matthew 28:1-10

When the women visit the tomb, an angel of the Lord comes and rolls away the stone. He speaks to them, telling them of Jesus' resurrection. As the women hurry away with the angels's message, Jesus comes before them and tells them to have his disciples meet him in Galilee.

- How does Jesus' resurrection affirm your faith?
- Who went to Jesus' tomb?
- How did the women feel as they left the tomb?
